FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

It has been a wonderful vacation. I am back....and feeling a little more refreshed, restored, and replenished. As a matter of fact, on last Sunday at Fellowship Baptist Church in Chicago, Mrs. Davis and I were blessed to hear God speaking to us about being refueled. Well, my mind has been on what more we can do as we have more of you find your spiritual giftedness in the life of this congregation. We will keep praying that God will continue to show each of us His work and plan for us. I believe in Congregational rule and as our covenant states, we will try not to have a contentious spirit.... it is a fact whether old or young, we agree to abide by the majority. Let's stay encouraged and empowered as we continue to catch on fire!

Here comes this week's man of the Bible. Let's talk about the Prophet Jeremiah. Jeremiah had a difficult ministry. He experienced one of the most trial filled existences of any of the Old Testament prophets. Because of what he saw, preached and suffered, Jeremiah is often referred to as "the weeping prophet." He cried tears of sadness, not only because he knew what was about to happen but because, no matter how hard he tried, the people would not listen. He was the last prophet sent by God to give a message to the people in his area and he was only about 17 when his journey in ministry began. Jeremiah's story shows us that life can be tough, but God promises that we can trust his methods and his will. So, will we obey the Lord even when it's difficult? God had a special plan for Jeremiah, and his obedience affected not only his family but the entire nation of Israel. Jeremiah bravely obeyed God and shared a message that wasn't popular. Even though he faced challenging events, Jeremiah continued to obey God. Can the same be said for each of us? Read about the "Weeping Prophet" Jeremiah in the book of his name and in the book of Lamentations.

Today at 4:00 p.m. we will celebrate in song at our Annual Men's Songfest. Don't miss this event! Celebrate with our Male Chorus and others as we sing to the Glory of God. Don't forget to cast your vote for Man of the Year TODAY! Also men, we invite you to the Male Summit meeting on Tuesday and we encourage you to not let this coming weekend pass you by...because the Lifebuilders' Conference will be held on this coming Saturday. Our very own Dr. Gregory Hardy will share with our men and young men. Then, on next Sunday, we will have our Annual Celebration of Manhood Sunday and Sacrificial Sunday, with the charge to our men to lead our Sacrificial Giving efforts of $150 above our tithes and offerings. (Ladies, we would appreciate your support at the Men's Songfest and for Sacrificial Sunday as well ☺) Men, are you on fire? Don't let grass cutting, car washing, TV watching, Fortnite, and of course, golfing or fishing keep you from being here! Young men and boys, 12 and up, we are looking for you this afternoon...and next weekend too. We are all working to be "Men on Fire for Christ". Let's show up and allow God to show out! We are not men who are extinct...rather we are men that are excited....and a part of AN EXCITING CHURCH EXCITED ABOUT ITS MISSION!

THE DEACON'S MESSAGE

The world can be a confusing place. We must know who God is to be able to survive in it. What is more, we must know what God represents, what He has done, is doing, and will do for the Children He loves. Sceptics would have us believe God is only part of our imagination. Some think the notion of waiting on God is laughable because they think He is as real as leprechauns, hobbits or trolls. Or, maybe, He is a shadow of our deeper selves that our subconscious pulls to the forefront when the pressures of life become too much. Others believe that we are gods. That we have the power to do anything we want. We just have to will our minds to do whatever, and it happens. Here is a message that is timeless, and everyone needs to hear it. God is real! When you find yourself in a "real" situation and you need help, call on God. The Psalmist in Psalm 18:2, NLT describes God perfectly. The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my savior; my God is my rock, in whom I find protection. He is my shield, the power that saves me, and my place of safety. Who is God to you?
