

Love AFTER MARRIAGE

“A Holy Spirit journey into spiritual, emotional, and sexual oneness”

Dear Potential LAM Workshop Couple,

We look forward to having you join us. It is with great joy that we anticipate the many things the Holy Spirit is about to do in the lives of each of you. In order to prepare your hearts for what God desires, we suggest that you begin praying as a couple for your time together. Also, take some time to clarify in your own hearts what you hope the Lord will do during this workshop. All of this will position your spirit and soul to receive everything that He has for you during this workshop.

Please fill out the entire application packet and email to: lam@lighthousepa.org as soon as possible.

Our team will spend time praying over all the applications and asking the Lord to show us what small group He would have us place you in. This is a very important aspect of the workshop. Please begin praying into this with us as well.

In this packet you will find:

This Cover Letter – please keep this for your reference.

Joint Information – this will serve as the cover page of your application when you turn it in or email it.

Agreement & Liability Release Form – this must be signed and be included with your application that is returned to us.

Application – please complete all fields. Please print clearly (if you are not using the electronic version). If you are using the electronic version, when completed, please print a copy of the Agreement and Survey pages and submit. Please place the “Joint Information” form on the top of your application.

Pastoral/Leader Recommendation – this is helpful for those desiring to facilitate a group or DVD workshop in the future

We look forward to being with you.

Love and blessings,

Barry & Lori, and the Love After Marriage Team

WORKSHOP AGREEMENT & LIABILITY RELEASE FORM

We acknowledge that this marriage workshop has been designed to teach, impart understanding and anointing for a godly, fulfilling marriage. We understand that this is a workshop rather than simply a teaching time. And as such we will have ample opportunity for sharing, practicing communication skills and other skills essential to a healthy marriage. If talking and sharing may be difficult for us, we understand that we may need to be prepared to go past our comfort zones. We agree that we will profit more by putting forth a good effort rather than just passively attending. We understand that the workshop has been created to be a safe environment where people who risk and may be vulnerable by sharing openly will not be embarrassed or criticized but rather encouraged.

We submit this application with a desire to give ourselves completely as we can to the Lord, to our marriage and to the people in our small group for the duration of this workshop. We agree to participate to the best of our ability following the leading of Holy Spirit. We acknowledge that there will be time to complete activities together as couples and in our small group, where we will have the opportunity to participate in open and honest discussions. We will also be given opportunities to ask for advice and receive help for a particular issue in our marriage, and acknowledge that there will be homework assignments for us to complete as a couple outside of the workshop time.

We understand that there may be issues with longstanding roots in deep hurts that we may have unconsciously covered with coping mechanisms over time, and that these wounds may be brought to the surface through the process of the sharing and may require some specialized help beyond the scope of the workshop. If this becomes the case for us, we understand that we will be directed to appropriate help if we so desired.

We agree with the vision of this workshop, which is to enable us to come out of this experience with a greater understanding of each other and a greater enjoyment of connecting on a more intimate level in our marriage.

We hereby assign and grant Love After Marriage and Living Strong Inc. the right and permission to use videotapes, electronic representations, any created derivative works and, or sound recordings made of us by Love After Marriage and Living Strong Inc., and we hereby release Love After Marriage and Living Strong Inc. from any and all liability from such use and publication. We hereby authorize the reproduction, copyright, exhibition, transmission, broadcast or webcast in any media or format, now known or unknown, electronic storage and/or distribution of said photographs, video tapes, electronic representations and, or sound recordings without limitation at the discretion of Love After Marriage and Living Strong Inc. I specifically waive any right to any compensation I may have for any of the foregoing.

This form must be printed and signed by the participating couple
