Call to Worship

*Give to the Lord, O families of the peoples,
Give to the Lord glory and strength.
Give to the Lord the glory due His name;*

*Bring an offering, and come before Him.
Oh, worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness!*

*Tremble before Him, all the earth
The world also is firmly established
It shall not be moved.*

*Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations,
"The Lord reigns."*

Trying Days, Trying Times

These are surely the days that try the hearts of men. Our resolve, our resilience, and our faith are tested in days of uncertainty, economic leanness, and political and social upheaval. The question of the day is what now and what next?

Edward L. Keyton
Senior Evangelist

King David said it well in the eleventh Psalm: "In the LORD put I my trust." To sum up this psalmist's view, the righteous lean on the God they serve however dark the night and however dismal the days.

The LORD is in His Holy Temple and is aware of our struggles, and He is acutely in touch with our trials. Another more modern-day poet put it like this "I will trust in the LORD til I die."

NOTES OF THANKS . . .

Thank You: In the book of Proverbs it states, “good people will be remembered as a blessing...” And what a blessing you all are! My family and I have been comforted by the outpouring of love from this congregation. Thanks to each and every one of you that called, sent a card and/or prayed for us during this most difficult time. And a big thank you to Elders Frazier, Jackson, Matthews and Wood, Deacon Porter and his wife, Wanda, for taking the time out of their busy schedules to attend my brother’s funeral. The loving kindness shown to my family and me by the saints at Bouldercrest makes me proud to be a member of this congregation. Many blessings to each and every one of you! Rita Clark
