

8th Grade Summer Reading

Welcome to the 8th grade! This summer you are required to read the following two novels:

Anne of Green Gables by Lucy Maud Montgomery

The Swiss Family Robinson by Johann David Wyss

You are required to journal your thoughts in a notebook and turn it in on the first day of school. Each novel should have at least twenty journal entries and include your impressions, feelings and observations as you read.

You may also include what you are enjoying about the novel, any questions you may have about the plot, what you think may happen, and/or comments on the author's style.
