

God Floods the Earth

Week 6

▶ God's promises are always reliable.

▶ "The Lord is faithful to all his promises and loving toward all he has made" (Psalm 145:13b).

▶ We learned this week that God is faithful to always keep his promises (Genesis 7:1–8:22; 9:8-16). Strengthen your family's faith learning and growth at home with this easy idea:

▶ Parents: Talk about one kept or unkept promise that you've experienced. Perhaps your parent promised to take you on a trip and it never happened. How did you feel—hurt, sad, betrayed? Or perhaps your child promised to clean his room, and before you could even check, your child kept the promise. How did that make you feel—happy, proud, satisfied? Ask your family members how knowing that God will never ever break his promises makes them feel. Why is it important to your family's faith to know that "the Lord is faithful to all his promises"? Have each family member complete the following sentence: "I'm glad God keeps his promises because..."

▶ God, thank you for keeping every promise you ever make. Help us remember to put our trust in you because you're faithful. In Jesus' name, amen.
