Prayer of Invocation/Confession

Loving and Ever-Present God, we thank You for this day of worship. We honor You and we thank You for Your presence in our lives. This is the day You have made! This is a day of rejoicing! We thank You for Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. We thank You for His death through which we have forgiveness from our sins and hope for new life. We pray for our loved ones and friends, our nation and leaders, our city and the world. Holy Spirit, fill us with Your glory. Holy Spirit, transform us into faithful disciples. We offer You our praise and we rejoice knowing that You are with us. We need Your power to move among us this day and this hour. Glory Hallelujah to Your mighty Name. Amen.

Pray without ceasing.
1 Thessalonians 5:17

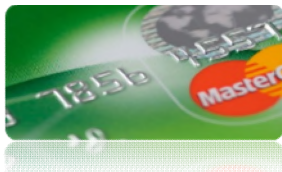

Offertory Prayer

Almighty God, in whose presence we worship and in whose name we pray, today we bring our tithes, mission gifts and sacrificial offerings to You. We want our light to shine in the world through these blessings we bring to You. We put our trust in You and we render our stewardship to You. We join our hearts, spirits, voices and money, together to worship You. Please increase our obedience and increase our faith. In the power of the Name of Jesus, we pray and we give. Amen.

“Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.”
1 Corinthians 15:58

FROM THE DESK OF REV. CARNEL RICHARDSON

Christ is RISEN indeed! However, the question that lingers on this post-resurrection Sunday is, "Where do we go from here?" We have resurrection hope and hopefully resurrection faith. Each Sunday, we continue to celebrate Christ's triumphant defeat of the powers of darkness and death. In addition to all of that, we wait patiently for Christ's return. However, as we live between the "already and the not yet" we face some difficult societal realities. Racial injustice, profiling, and racial tensions remain high in our nation. Gun violence and "copy-cat" killings in schools and houses of worship have pervaded our society, producing daily fear in the hearts of the general public. Where do we go from here? This week marks the 50th anniversary of the assassination of our drum major for justice, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr, who preached about non-violence as a means to achieve social and moral success and yet the world seems more obsessed with spreading violence than when Martin lived. Where do we go from here? We must unashamedly continue to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ so that the lost can be saved and the sin-sick can be helped. We owe it to ourselves and our communities to speak up and speak out against violence, tyranny, injustice, and ignorance, no matter where it might prevail. We must continue to embrace the word of God as the lamp that is unto our feet and light that is present on our daily paths (Psalm 119:105). We must preach, pray, love, and fight until this earthly life is over.
