CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us come and worship with our hearts and our souls. Let us seek to be empowered by the Holy Spirit. Let us throw off everything that hinders our praise. In the Name of Christ!

Prayer of Invocation/Confession

Lord, make us instruments of Your love. May we see each circumstance in our lives as an opportunity to grow in Your love. May we then take this love to other people. When we are tempted to become impatient, help us to be patient. When we are tempted to become unkind, help us to be kind. When we are tempted to become jealous, help us to be tolerant. When we are tempted to be rude or selfish, give us the gift of gentleness. When we are tempted to take offense, help us to let go. Lord, grant that we may take no pleasure in criticizing others, but that we may see good in them, as You do. Help us to be loyal to those You give us to love. We ask all of this in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

*Pray
ceasing.*
1 Thessalonians 5:17

Offertory Prayer

Almighty God, in whose presence we worship and in whose name we pray, today we bring our tithes, mission gifts and sacrificial offerings to You. We want our light to shine in the world through these blessings we bring to You. We put our trust in You and we render our stewardship to You. We join our hearts, spirits, voices and money, together to worship You. Please increase our obedience and increase our faith. In the power of the Name of Jesus, we pray and we give. Amen.

"Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain."

1 Corinthians 15:58

Debit Card Giving

OUR GUEST PREACHER: REV. CONNIE "CJ" JACKSON

The Rev. Connie Jackson or "Rev. CJ" as she is affectionately called is a global ministry leader and prolific communicator of the Gospel. As an ordained minister and former elected official, Jackson has lectured and preached for diverse audiences throughout North America, Europe, and Africa. Her transformative oratory has granted her audiences with Fortune 500 companies, academic and religious institutions for conferences, revivals and leadership development.

Rev. CJ is a trailblazer among women in the political arena. Mentored by the late U.S. Congresswoman Barbara Jordan, Jackson followed Jordan's passion for public service by dedicating herself to government service for two decades. She holds the distinction of being the first African American woman elected to a city council position in the 153-year history of Galveston County when she was elected to the City Council of Texas City, Texas in May 1992. Prior to this historic election, Jackson served as Chief of Staff for the Dean of the Texas Senate, elections administrator for the Texas Democratic Party, and chief consultant for numerous successful political campaigns.

After serving five terms as an elected official, Jackson left public office to devote her full attention to ministerial endeavors.

Rev. CJ's multi-disciplinary educational background includes political science, theology, and psychology. Her work experience includes civic leadership, business development, foreign affairs, biblical studies and pastoral care. Jackson earned a Bachelor of Arts in Government from the University of Texas at Austin and a Master of Divinity from the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC) in Atlanta, Georgia. While matriculating at ITC, Reverend Jackson was inducted into the Theta Phi Honor Society, served as Student Body President, Presidential Fellow and received the Isaac R. Clark Preaching Award. In 2010, ITC honored Rev. Jackson with the James H. Costen Emerging Leader Award.

She is also a 2007 graduate of the Harvard Divinity School Leadership Certificate Program. A distinguished writer, Jackson has been published in The Journal of the Interdenominational Theological Center, numerous religious publications and Essence Magazine Online. Rev. Jackson is currently pursuing a Doctorate of Ministry degree from United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio.

Rev. Jackson is a native Texan who has lived and served in Southern Africa as a global development consultant providing economic development and critical healthcare and in Atlanta, Georgia as an executive director of a community development corporation providing affordable housing, quality healthcare and workforce education.

She serves as the Senior Pastor-Teacher of St. John Northwest, a non-denominational church that is Relational, Enthusiastic, Authentic and Loving. She is also president of On the Edge Ministries, Inc. which develops and facilitates biblical study curriculum for women, church leadership development and ministry training seminars.
