CALL TO WORSHIP

*You know our hearts, O God.
Love us, purify us, that we might be Your people seeking to know You with all that we
are. Amen.*

Prayer of Invocation/Confession

*We come into your presence with praise on our lips and love in our hearts for You, O Lord our God!
Please accept our songs of praise as sweet offerings to You for your steadfast love and your faithfulness.
Hear our songs and purify our hearts.
Help us to hear Your call on our lives and may we respond with faith and commitment. Guide us to love You more deeply. Lead us to love one another more. We praise You today and we give You our love. Praise the name of the Lord forever! Heavenly Father, stir up in us a new awareness of our need for forgiveness. We need a new beginning with You. Forgive us for thinking of our own comfort.
Forgive us for daydreaming about our own riches. We need love and the world needs love. Use us for Your glory. Amen.*

Offertory Prayer

Gracious Lord, we are grateful for all You have done. We could not be here today if You had not given us daily bread. You have provided for our needs through Your mercy, please make us instruments so that the needs of others may also be met. With our tithes, mission gifts and sacrificial offerings, make us better and help us to know the joy of being a cheerful giver. In the name of Jesus, the Ultimate Gift, we pray. Amen.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH OF DETROIT (c. 1836) 441-461 Monroe Avenue, Detroit, MI

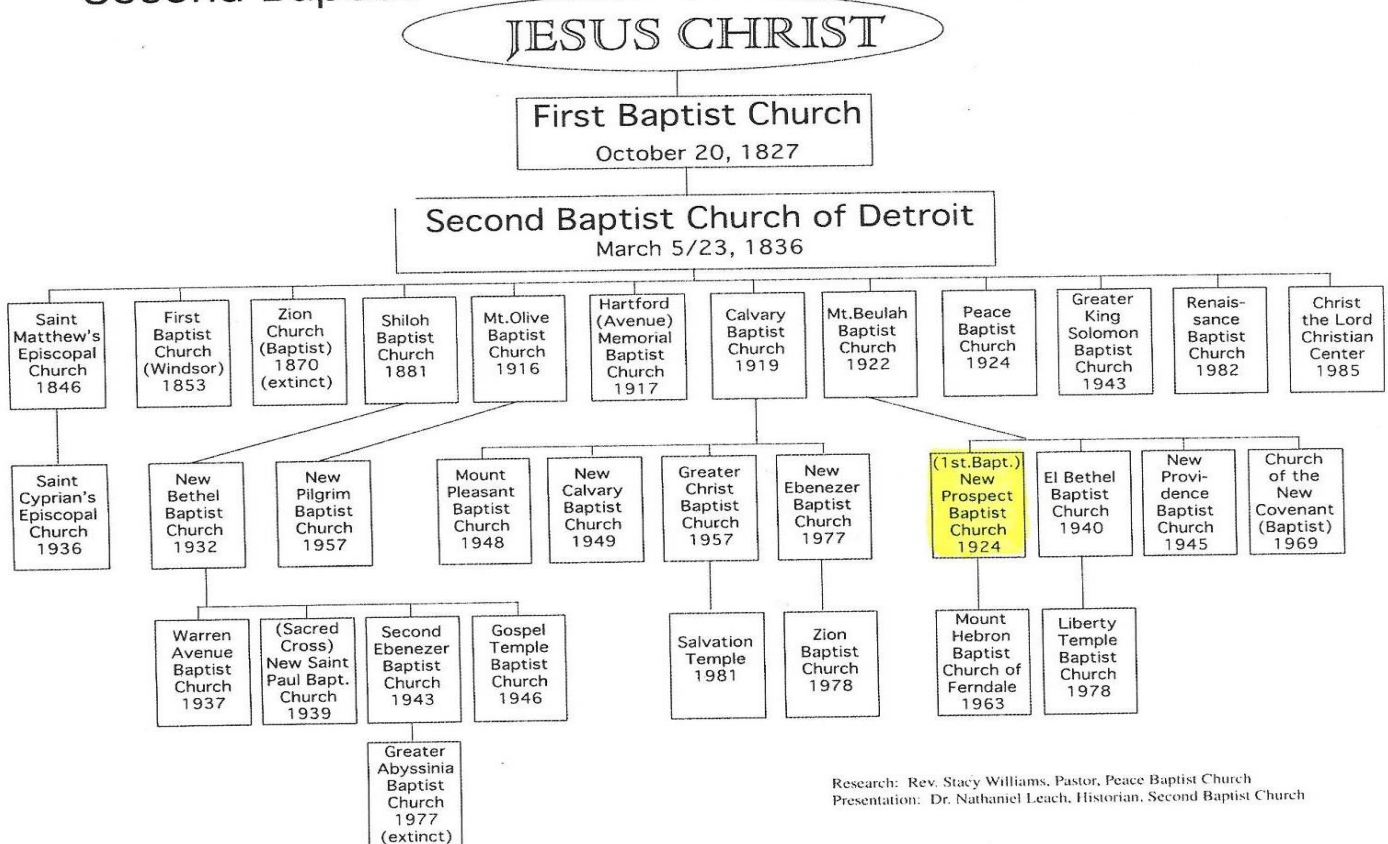

In March 1836, 13 determined men and women received permission from the Territorial Legislature of Michigan to own and operate their own church. This was Detroit's seventh major church. This downtown Detroit church is the oldest religious institution owned by blacks in the Midwest. Second Baptist claimed a mission to free slaves and have them enjoy the full privileges of American citizenship.

From 1836 to 1865 (the end of the Civil War), the church served as a "station" on the Underground Railroad receiving some 5,000 slaves before sending them on to Canada. By giving them food, clothing, and shelter, the church was in total defiance of the Fugitive Slave Laws. In 1839, Second Baptist established the city's first school for black children. In 1859, Abolitionist Frederick Douglass spoke at Second Baptist minutes before a meeting in a Detroit home with revolutionary John Brown to plan methods of freeing slaves.

In 1863, the church hosted a public reading of the Emancipation Proclamation to explain that President Lincoln had freed the slaves in only the 10 "rebellious" states, leaving the nation half-slave and half-free.

Over the years, Second Baptist can claim direct or indirect influence in the creation of over 30 churches:

“Prior to the 20th century, most African American Christian women commonly followed 1 Corinthians 11:6 and covered their heads in worship. For early African Americans, God’s house was not only a sanctuary of hope and salvation in a brutal world, but it was also one of the few places where they were allowed to hold important positions of leadership. Sunday was thus a day of worship and celebration. African American women traded in their drab aprons and knotted head wraps for brightly colored dresses and straw hats decorated with fresh flowers, ribbons and feathers. These heaven-reaching hats were designed to “catch God’s eye” in hopes He would hear their prayers.”
