Prayer of Invocation/Confession

O God, our Father, we are grateful for another day of worship. We are grateful for another day in which we can feel Your Living Presence. Thank You for Your loving care and for watching over us all of our days. Help us to remember, with thanksgiving, all the love and mercy of the past week. Thank You for every kind word, and every prayer, in our times of joy and sorrow. Above all, thank You for Your Son, Jesus the Christ, who is King of Kings in our lives. He humbled Himself that we might be exalted. He was wounded for our transgressions. On this blessed morning, open our eyes that we might behold the wondrous things You are doing among us. You are worthy, O King of Glory! In the powerful name of Jesus the Christ, we pray. Amen.

Happy Father's Day

Offertory Prayer

Gracious Lord, we are grateful for all You have done. We could not be here today if You had not given us daily bread. You have provided for our needs through Your mercy, please make us instruments so that the needs of others may also be met. With our tithes, mission gifts and sacrificial offerings, make us better and help us to know the joy of being a cheerful giver. In the name of Jesus, the Ultimate Gift, we pray. Amen.

"Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain."

1 Corinthians 15:58

Leader: For our fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers, and those who father, they have given us life and love. They sustain, support and love us no matter what!

All: For this we give thanks to the Lord, and what a blessing they are to all who know them.

Leader: For our fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers, and those who father, who have lost a child through death, may their faith give them hope, and their family and friends support and console them.

All: This is our prayer to You O Lord.

Leader: For those sons and daughters who have increased the joy of fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers and those who father.

All: Thank God for fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers and those who fathered in the past!

Leader: For our fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers, and those who fathered, that are not with us and whose presence is greatly missed.

All: May we take time to gratefully recall all they have given to us, and provided for us in our growing.

Leader: For those who have recently lost fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers and those who fathered or for those who are facing the approaching loss of their fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers and those who father.

All: May they find comfort in their grief, hope in their despair, courage in the love that their fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers and those who fathered them, have given.

Leader: For men, though without children of their own, who like fathers have nurtured and cared for us, we give thanks because their gift for fatherhood is so strong that they have allowed their caring to spill over into the lives of others providing the guidance and stability, the nurturing and the love they needed.

All: For this we give thanks to the Lord.

Leader: For fathers, who have been unable to be a source of strength, who have not responded to their children, who have not sustained their families, who have been a source of hurt and pain and disappointment.

All: May their wounds be healed and may they also find in You, in us, in others, the nurturing, sustaining love that is needed for their growth and well-being.

Leader: We remember single fathers who struggle to be both parents to their children.

All: May we give them the emotional, physical and spiritual support they need. And may they find in You O Lord, the strength, the courage and wisdom for this task.

Leader: We continue to pray for those who have been denied a chance to be a biological father, and we pray for those whose years or months or weeks or hours of parenting have been cut short by the loss of a child.

All: We turn to You, Most Holy God, knowing and trusting that you can comfort where comforting seems impossible.

Leader: Finally, O God, we rejoice at the many men, who have taken their place as fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, play fathers and fathering with open hearts, with willingness and joy.

All: And we join all fathers everywhere in praying that their children and those they love as their own children, may be well and happy, and a source of joy for years to come.

Leader: Hear our prayers this day, O God, and give to us such an assurance of your love, that your love may spill forth from us into the lives of others.

Together: Bless these men and sons and brothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of, and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.
