Vacation Bible Schools Children's Festivals

Over 9,000 children have been reached in the 100 villages of India with puppets, songs, stories & treats. Under the trees, makeshift rooms or in a nice building a joyful time was had as the children responded to the stories, singing the songs, created crafts about the lesson, prayed & always a snack.

GAI director, Joshua Ramesh, did let us know their was hinderance by the Hindus in 10 villages as they tried to stop them from entering the village.

By sharing the love of God they will now be starting home groups in many of these villages.

We want to thank all the teachers & volunteers who made this great outreach possible.
