“Committed to Excellence in Training and Support”

A Note from Chaplain Mike Ryan, Region 2 Director

On behalf of our ICPC leadership, I want to welcome your participation in our annual ICPC Region 2 Regional Training Seminar. This year's conference will offer a balance of ICPC Basic Training along with advance courses designed to address the challenges addressed in the field.

We are honored to have Cynthia Ulrich Tobias as our plenary session speaker. She is the best-selling author of 13 books, including You Can't Make Me (But I Can be Persuaded), The Way They Learn, and The Way We Work.

Cynthia has a successful background that includes 6 years in law enforcement, over 25 years of private practice, and 8 years of teaching high school. Cynthia's insight and expertise has been recognized by parents, teachers, and law enforcement professionals across the nation and around the globe. Through the personal stories and practical and positive insight into the mind of the strong-willed learner, Cynthia has taken a subject that many experts have studied and has applied her own learning style with amazing results.

For over 30 years, Cynthia has been teaching people of all ages how to discover and use their natural inborn learning style strengths to succeed in virtually any situation. Her insights, humor and practical strategies have encouraged and motivated law enforcement personnel, educators, businesspeople and parents to focus on strengths to achieve success. With a gift of communicating with people of all ages, Cynthia has brought strategies to law enforcement personnel, but she remains humbled by the way God uses her message to make such a difference in the lives of people from all backgrounds (and ages).

With her learning style insights, attendees are motivated to recognize that many of the traits in their associates that were inconvenient, or irritating are, in reality, signs of their greatest potential strengths. This passion for the potential of a strong-willed person is what motivates her to share the powerful message that will change the lives of many.

We are also once again honored to also have ICPC's Academic Registrar, John Transue, who will assist us with our academic needs and opportunities.

Our experience together at Canon Beach Conference Center affords many opportunities to strengthen and make new friendships, deepen our resilience in service, and raise the bar as proactive chaplains who are committed to the care of our charges in law enforcement.

As ever, if I or our area representatives can serve you in any way, please let us know. Thanks in advance for being with us.

Stay safe and God bless,

Mike

TOPICS COVERED AT THE 2019 RTS

The agencies we serve expect us to be trained and equipped to serve them with expertise and excellence. The 2019 RTS provides a unique opportunity to make the progress needed toward ICPC's highly recognized credentialing.

The International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC) serves and provides training to law enforcement chaplains (volunteer or paid), officers, and agency administrators.

Departments, regardless of size, can receive the benefits and information needed to develop and/or enhance their chaplaincy program.

Training provides continuing education credits (CEU), as well as equipping attendees to better serve law enforcement officers, families and communities.

The Journal, our quarterly publication, may be viewed on the ICPC website.
