International Conference of Police Chaplains Region 2

Chaplain Jim Crowley, Regional Director
555 N.E. 15th St. Bend, Or. 97701

jcrowley5510@gmail.com

The Region 2 of the International Conference of Police Chaplains provides an excellent training conference each year. The Regional Training Seminar & Workshops offer significant opportunities for study and fellowship, held again this year in the beautiful and picturesque setting of Cannon Beach, Oregon.

This year our main meetings and training will be in the Fireside Room in the Haven Building. Our second room for training will be the Pacific Room 2nd Floor. WE WILL NOT BE USING THE BEACH FRONT BUILDING FOR TRAINING OR ROOMS.

In addition to training and opportunities for dialog and discussion, there are opportunities for spouses to attend the classes as well as enjoy the Oregon Coast. As an extra bonus, you will enjoy the sessions with our guest speakers.

We invite you to join us! Whether you're an experienced chaplain or just beginning your chaplaincy career, the ICPC Region 2 will have something for you. Please register to attend the conference today!

Fellowship is one important goal at each ICPC Region 2 Training Seminar

We also want to recognize those chaplains who have reached credentialing and ministry goals. Then of course, there's the food, the beach, and more!

NOTICE: please note that the lodging/meals fee covers the cost of your room, maid service, breakfast, lunch, dinner, and snacks. Bring your uniform to wear at the Awards Banquet. At all other times the dress is casual. Bring rain-gear and shoes so you can walk on the beach!

A worldwide organization, the International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC) respects the beliefs and faith of its members, and recognizes each individual's right to so practice. The ICPC seeks to be inclusive in its programming, classes and events.

A Note from Chaplain Jim Crowley, Region 2 Director

Training So We Can Serve and Support

Greetings and Welcome to the ICPC Region 2 Training Seminar (RTS) and Workshops for 2015. This year's RTS will continue to provide the high standard of training we have experienced in the past, equipping us with the necessary tools to be effective in our chaplaincies, we are Raising the Standard – this year's theme is A Call for Spiritual Survival.

We will be honored to have as our Special Speakers for extended sessions Supervisory Special Agent Samuel L. Feemster (ret.) the founder of Project BeSTOW, a multi-year research project developed at the FBI Academy's Behavioral Science Unit (BSU). ICPC Academic Registrar Chaplain John Transue will assist us with Credentialing Opportunities.

We will be challenged by the training, presentations and the opportunities to develop and reinforce critical relationships that will make all of us more effective. We are honored to serve men and women who give their best and do an outstanding job. The RTS will be an opportunity to give back to our officers and be an influence on them for the future - for their future.

Walk with me through the opportunities to learn together and support each other in becoming Proactive Chaplains that Raise the Standard. Thanks for being with us and making this a week of influence and progress for the future. If I can serve you this week please contact me or one of our Region 2 team members.

God Bless – Jim

TOPICS

LARGE GROUP SESSIONS

Spiritual Survival for Law Enforcement: Samuel L. Feemster.

BASIC CLASSES

Each year we provide 6 of the 12 ICPC Basic Courses. This will allow new Chaplains to complete the Basic Courses in two years if the RTS is the only training they are able to attend.

B1 Intro to Law Enforcement Chaplaincy: Chaplain Mike Ryan - This course is an introduction to the law enforcement chaplaincy ministry addressing elements of scope, purpose, mission, pitfalls and wellness.

B2 Death Notification: Chaplain Gordon Harper - This course will introduce strategic principles designed to prepare the chaplain to deliver a more effective death notification.

B3 Stress Management: (includes segments on Burn-out, CISM and Post Shoot Trauma) – Chaplain Mike Dismore - This course assists law enforcement personnel and chaplains in recognizing and dealing with all aspects of the Stress Management, Burnout, CISM and Post Shoot Trauma.

B6 Ethics: Chaplain Jerry Gaidos - This course deals with moral decisions faced by law enforcement officers and chaplains alike.

B7 Responding to a Crisis Situation: Chaplain Charles Hagemeyer - This course assists the chaplain in understanding “a crisis event” and the basic responses from family and victims who experience sudden traumatic events. The course will focus on effective on-scene and post-event practical care; emotionally, physically and spiritually.

B11 Officer Death or Injury: Chaplain Todd Pynch - This course will provide information on the proper response of a law enforcement agency to a line-of-duty death. Areas of coverage include: notification, funeral protocols, and appropriate responses of the law enforcement agency following the funeral. Protocols for defusing and debriefing will be discussed.

ADVANCED CLASSES

Building Chaplain Teams – For Executive Chaplains: Jim Crowley

This session is for chaplains who are responsible for more than one chaplain in their area of intentional chaplaincy for specific agencies and departments.

Disaster Spiritual Survival - the Oso Mud Slide: Ralph Fry

Disasters can have a dramatic effect emotionally and spiritually. Chaplains are human and the impact is very real. This class will share the experiences during the Oso mud slide. Let's be honest! There are events in our lives that have the potential of strengthening or even hindering our faith. Our goal for this class will be to share lessons learned and helps for survival.

The Endurance of Chaplaincy: ICPC President Mike Hardgrove

What are the themes, experience, methodology or structure that would build resilience for chaplains and enhance their Spiritual Survival? The Endurance of Chaplaincy will challenge you to evaluate yourself and better equip yourself for the future.

Spiritual Survival - A Police Officer's Perspective: Chief James Montgomery

Bellevue, WA Police Chief Montgomery will share how he survive a Law Enforcement career and was proactive in his faith. It will help answer the question "What can chaplains do to enhance and encourage their fellow officers?"

Training Credentialing/Accreditation and Educational Needs: Dr. John Transue

This will be an opportunity to learn how to accomplish the credentialing levels associated with the International Conference of Police Chaplains. It will also give the necessary means to keep transcripts and class work cared for painlessly! There will be an opportunity to dialogue with Dr. Transue who is the Academic Registrar for the ICPC. This class can save you time and money! Our agencies expect us to be trained and equipped to serve them. This is the opportunity to make the progress needed toward credentials.

2015 RTS INSTRUTORS

Chaplain Jim Crowley

Chaplain Crowley is the Executive Chaplain for Central Oregon Police Chaplaincy having served them full time for over 12 years. He has served First Responders since 1987. He is a credentialed Master Chaplain with the International Conference of Police Chaplaincy and serves this International Organization as the Region 2 Director. He is an Approved Instructor for ICPC & ICISF – International Critical Incident and Stress Foundation. Chaplain Crowley has been married for 42 years, has 3 children who reside in Central Oregon and 6 grandchildren. He is endorsed by his denomination to accomplish Law Enforcement Chaplaincy since 2003.

Chaplain Mike Dismore

Mike has been a pastor since 1978 in Oregon, Idaho, and California. He moved to Redmond, Oregon with his wife and two children in mid-2004. Mike serves as chaplain with Central Oregon Police Chaplaincy. He has his Master Chaplain credential and is an approved instructor with ICPC and ICISF. He's been married since April 1985.

Samuel L. Feemster M.Div., J.D.

Supervisory Special Agent Samuel L. Feemster (ret.) is the founder of Project BeSTOW, a multi-year research project developed at the FBI Academy's Behavioral Science Unit (BSU). Mr. Feemster served in several field offices, investigated multiple violations, and was a SWAT operator prior to being assigned to the FBI Academy. In addition to teaching White Collar Crime to new agent trainees and facilitating classes in Community Policing and Stress Management for the FBI National Academy (NA), Mr. Feemster sponsored multiple satellite broadcasts and hosted several working seminars and two conferences focused on the responsibility of communities to answer their call to support law enforcement personnel. These activities, along with Mr. Feemster's investigative and operational experiences, created the synergy necessary to identify and refine a new body of knowledge regarding the connection between officer wellness, officer safety, organizational wellness, and community security. The primary mission of Feemster Linkins Consulting is to empower agencies to design and implement sustainable customized wellness philosophies that serve their personnel and communities. The process of cultivating holistic wellness is titled "Spirituality Adapted for Law Enforcement Training" (SALT).

Chaplain Ralph Fry

Ralph has been a Fire and Law Enforcement Chaplain for nearly thirty years. He trained and volunteered with Support 7 in Edmonds, Washington until starting Stanwood Camano Incident Support in North Snohomish County, Washington. Ralph is the director of Hope Unlimited, a nonprofit ministry of compassion and care that includes the Fire/Police Chaplaincy and Single Family Life, a ministry to single parents and their families. Chaplain Gordon Harper

Chaplain Gordon E. Harper is a pastor/teacher with 23 years as a hospital chaplain, 12 years as a fire chaplain and 5 years as a police chaplain. Chaplain Harper has been a pastor in various capacities since 1964. As a member of ICPC, FFC, AACC, Pilots for Christ and ICISF, Chaplain Harper has sought to advance his skills as an effective chaplain to first responders and others in need. Harper is married to Catherine and they have three children, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Harper is a Wyoming native and has resided in Gillette, WY for 27 years. Harper is currently chaplain for Campbell County Sheriff's Office, Moorcroft, Wy Fire Department, Pilots for Christ and Campbell County Memorial Hospital.

Chaplain Todd Pynch

Todd Pynch has served as a chaplain for the past 22 years. He currently serves as the Executive Chaplain for Crisis Chaplaincy Services in Salem, Oregon. His organization serves police, fire and dispatch agencies in Marion, Benton, Linn, Polk & Yamhill Counties in Oregon, caring for more than 1000 emergency responders and responding to nearly 500 calls each year. During his career as a chaplain, Todd has dealt with the death of several emergency service responders including 3 line of duty deaths, the death of a deputy in Iraq and the suicide of a firefighter. He is an adjunct professor at Chemeketa Community College in Salem, Oregon. Todd first started working in police work in 1975, working for the Stayton Police Department, the Oregon State Police and the Benton County Sheriff's Office. He also served as a pastor for 17 years and has been married to his wife, Martha, for 31 years. Todd & Martha have two children, Cari (22) & Andrew (14).
