A Note from Chaplain Mike Ryan, Region 2 Director

Committed to Excellence in Training and Support

Greetings. On behalf of our ICPC leadership, I want to welcome your participation in our annual ICPC Region 2 Regional Training Seminar. I've been serving as a law enforcement chaplain for over 30 years, the past 12 with my agencies in King County, WA. I have been truly amazed at the reputation our Region has earned in its excellence in training and quality of care. As your Regional Director, I stand on the shoulders of those who have served before me and I am eager to sustain this reputation on your behalf and those you serve.

This year's conference will offer a balance of ICPC Basic Training along with advance courses designed to address the challenges addressed in the field. We are honored to have Chief Jon D. Zeliff as our plenary session speaker. He began his policing career in November 1984 as a Reserve Officer for the Grants Pass Police Department, and was later hired full time in July of 1986. Prior to becoming Chief of the Central Point Police Department, Jon served as the Support and Patrol Bureau Commander for the Grants Pass Department of Public Safety. He is a renowned speaker, having trained across the country, particularly addressing areas of ethics and integrity. A friend of chaplaincy, I know we will all benefit from his keen incites and motivational style. Jon has been married to his wife Laura, a retired Deputy Chief for the Grants Pass Department of Public Safety, for 36 years. Together they have two grown sons, and recently celebrated the birth of their tenth grandchild.

We are once again honored to have ICPC's Academic Registrar, John Transue, who will assist us with our academic needs and opportunities.

This week's experience at Canon Beach Conference Center affords opportunities to strengthen and make new friendships, deepen our resilience in service, and raise the bar as proactive chaplains, committed to the care of our charges in law enforcement. Thanks for being with us; if I or our area representatives can serve you in any way, please let us know.

Stay safe and God bless. Mike
