We also want to recognize those chaplains who have reached certifications and ministry goals. Then of course, there's the food, the beach, and more!

NOTICE: please note that the lodging/meals fee covers the cost of your room, maid service, breakfast, lunch, dinner, and snacks. Bring your uniform to wear at Tuesday's dinner. At all other times the dress is casual. Bring rain-gear and shoes so you can walk on the beach!

A Note from Chaplain Jim Crowley, Northwest Region #2 Director

On Behalf of the Northwest Region #2 Team of Chaplains

Greetings and Welcome to the Northwest Region #2 Training Seminar (RTS) and Workshops for 2012. This year's RTS will continue to provide the high standard of training we have experienced in the past, equipping us with the necessary tools to be effective in our chaplaincies, we are Raising the Standard. I have traveled across our Region to listen and learn from our great chaplains in the field. This year I have traveled to Alaska. It was great being with you. I am anticipating that this year's RTS will help us with the mindset of being proactive about our chaplaincies. What can we be accomplishing today that will in turn bring about a better influence for tomorrow? I want us to tool up with some of the best training that we can find.

We will be honored to have our ICPC Academic Registrar Chaplain John Transue and our newly elected International President Keoki Awai with us during most of our time. In addition, we are pleased to announce our special guests for the RTS: Retired Chief Bob Vernon and Noel Meador (Oxygen for Your Marriage author and trainer) as instructors for some of our extended sessions.

We will be challenged by the training, presentations and the opportunities to develop and reinforce critical relationships that will make all of us more effective. We are honored to serve men and women who give their best and do an outstanding job. The RTS will be an opportunity to give back to our officers and be an influence on them for the future - for their future.

Walk with me through the opportunities to learn together and support each other in becoming Proactive Chaplains that Raise the Standard. Thanks for being with us and making this a week of influence and progress for the future. If I can serve you this week please contact me or one of our Northwest Regional team members.

God Bless – Jim

LARGE GROUP SESSIONS

Chief Bob Vernon will Raise the Standard for our chaplains by challenging us about our Leadership, Integrity and Preparation/Training. What is it that he hoped for that the chaplains would bring to the Department when they showed up? Did they bring Calm to Chaos?

Noel Meador will enhance our understanding for equipping Marriages to be Renewed and Refreshed. We will gain insight and knowledge to help our First Responder Marriages and Relationships.

BASIC CLASSES

Each year we provide a number of the 12 ICPC Basic Courses. Our goal is to help new Chaplains to complete the Basic Courses in two years if the RTS is the only training they are able to attend. The Basic Classes offered this year will be:

B04 Ceremonies and Events – The class will provide the student with an understanding of the ceremonies and events used within Law Enforcement agencies and the role the chaplain plays in these events. Instructor – Instructor Chaplain John Transue

B08 Law Enforcement Family – The class will provide the student with an understanding of the law enforcement family unit, information on the law enforcement persona, an understanding of how officers go from altruism to cynicism, information on domestic violence in law enforcement, tools for ministering to the law enforcement family, communication skills for ministry to law enforcement, and resources for the law enforcement family. Instructor Chaplain Jim Crowley

B12 Sensitivity/Diversity – The class will provide the student with an understanding of what sensitivity and diversity is, an understanding of who we are in relation to other peoples or communities, an understanding of the police chaplain's role relative to diversity, recommendations of how to overcome prejudice, examples of universal human needs, levels of cross-cultural sensitivity, and ways to bridge the gap of diversity. Instructor Chaplain Tim Klerekoper

B09 Substance Abuse – The class will provide the student with an understanding of what chemical dependency is, identification of the thirty most common addictions, statistics on the impact of chemical dependence in law enforcement, information on the addictive personality, an understanding of the stages of the addictive process, and the chaplain's role for those with substance abuse issues. Instructor Chaplain Jim Fields

B10 Suicide – This class will provide the student with a general understanding of suicide, an understanding of how depression is related to suicide, an understanding how substance abuse is related to suicide, an overview of police suicides, and information regarding aftermath issues and general chaplain health and wellness. Instructor Chaplain Bert McQueen.

ADVANCED CLASSES

Spousal Support: Chaplains Pat & Lisa Ellis

This Class will give an opportunity to catch the Vision for an ongoing effective ministry for the Spouses of First Responders. It will also allow for Proactive Indicators to identify Weak and Strong Relationships. Our First Responders have an unusually high Divorce Rate and Relationship Difficulties that can cause the Officers to be unhealthy at best. They often resort to survival instincts that prove to be difficult for their careers. This Class will offer tools to identify these indicators and to put into practice a model for strengthening Spousal Relationships for our officers.

Disaster Preparedness Chaplains Preparation: Chaplain Mike Ryan

Chaplain Mike Ryan will provide a workshop for the chaplain to help them prepare and become better equipped to participate with a Disaster Response Team.

ICPC President

Keoki Awai

Keoki Awai is our newly elected ICPC President and he will be with us as his schedule allows to provide insight and direction for the future of ICPC.
