Regional Training News

Greetings –

Our Mission within the Region is to Train, Serve and Build Relationships amongst chaplains for Law Enforcement – First Responders. This year our theme was “Raising the Standard”

We have accomplished another opportunity to Raise the Standard together. We were honored to have Retired Chief Bob Vernon with us as our special speaker. He offered us the challenge to tune up our leadership skills laying the foundation for an impacting chaplaincy. We were challenged as well to Model the Integrity and Character that would draw our officers into a solid foundation of service and health.

We Trained together, we were challenged to Serve together and we built Relationship that will encourage all of us to become sustainable together. (con't on page 2)

Regional Training Seminar News (con't)

We learned the invaluable tools of what our officers want to see in a real leader. We learned about our opportunities to be certified as a chaplain with ICPC. We accomplished Basic Classes and Advanced Classes.

We learned how to use our website- icpcnw.org - providing the support and tools for the year to come. We walked on the beach and we absorbed the beauty that the coast of Oregon brings. Those who attended were challenged and equipped to be a better chaplain in their agency. If you were not able to be with us – we missed you!

Please plan now to be at our 2013 RTS (Regional Training Seminar) January 7th-10th, 2013 Canon Beach Conference Center, Canon Beach, Oregon. Our Theme will be Equipping for Endurance. Our Basic Classes will be offered again, Advanced classes and Special Speakers will be focused on our

Theme. Plan now to attend and strategize your financial support. It is always an honor to serve and support our Northwest Chaplains – YOU ARE THE BEST! God Bless - jim

NORTHWEST CHAPLAIN'S CONNECTION

Honor Begins at Home

Four men, one calling: To serve and protect. As law enforcement officers, Adam Mitchell, Nathan Hayes, David Thomson, and Shane Fuller are confident and focused. Yet at the end of the day, they face a challenge that none of them are truly prepared to tackle: fatherhood.

While they consistently give their best on the job, good enough seems to be all they can muster as dads. But they're quickly discovering that their standard is missing the mark.

When tragedy hits home, these men are left wrestling with their hopes, their fears, their faith, and their fathering. Can a newfound urgency help these dads draw closer to God ... and to their children?

Riveted moviegoers will once again find themselves laughing, crying, and cheering as they are challenged and inspired by everyday heroes who long to be the kinds of dads that make a lifelong impact on their children.

Protecting the streets is second nature to these men. Raising their children in a God-honoring way? That's courageous. The Courageous DVD is now available. Share a copy with your agency.
