Pastoral Crisis Intervention Course

June 21-22, 2010

8:30 am to 5:00 pm each day

Course Location: Deschutes County Sheriff's Office, Bend, Oregon

Cost of the Course: $99

Cost Includes: Registration, ICISF Materials & Certificate

Pastoral Crisis Intervention may be thought of as the combination of faith-based resources with traditional techniques of crisis intervention. The purpose of this two-day workshop is to assist the participants in learning how pastoral interventions and traditional psychological crisis interventions may be effectively integrated. (13 contact hours; 1.3 General CEUs from UMBC).

Chaplains, pastoral counselors, mental health professionals, ministers, department and agency liaison officers, and anyone interested in the use of faith-based resources in healing should find this course of interest.

Senior Chaplain Jim Crowley is an Ordained Minister who has been a pastor since 1974. He is the Executive Chaplain for Central Oregon Police Chaplaincy (COPC) and oversees a team of chaplains who serve within the three counties of Central Oregon. Jim is an ICISF certified trainer in this course as well as the Individual Crisis Intervention & Peer Support course, the Law Enforcement Perspectives course, and the Stress Management for the Trauma Provider course. Chaplain Mike Dismore has been a pastor since 1978. He is the Assistant Chaplain with COPC and is also an ICISF certified trainer.

To Register: Make checks payable to COPC.
