Some thoughts from my desk...

"A minister was approached by a couple who expressed a desire to become members of his congregation. The man said, however that he was rather busy and did not want to be called upon for any services such as working on a committee, teaching a church school class, or singing in a choir. The wife added that she did not want to be involved either, and not to look for them too often in worship, as they spent a lot of weekends traveling, camping, and visiting relatives. The also indicated that they could not make a pledge because of their many other financial obligations, but would give whatever they could. The minister thought for a moment and then replied, 'I think you folks have stopped at the wrong church. We understand the purpose of a religious community somewhat differently here, The church you want is three blocks down the street.'

There they found an abandoned and boarded up church building, a dead church, gone out of business."

When someone comes up to us and asks what it means to be a part of the Stevensville United Methodist Church, our answer is that we are striving to be a community of faith in which we have an inward look and caring for one another, as well as an outward look that calls us to be concerned with God's people all over the world. We continually work on our mission to "Be an instrument of God's love" in some unique and wonderful ways here at SUMC! We have definitely NOT gone out of business, but are clearly striving to do God's business!

Holding you in prayer, Gordie

Rummage Sale Details

The rummage sale committee is looking forward to a huge, successful sale to generate resources for the UMW's special projects. However, we need YOUR help. We need your fall and winter clothing and any household items, including furniture. Your clothing can be kept on hangers. We will begin accepting your donations at noon on Sunday, September 30. Your donations should be placed in the alcove of Faith Hall. The church will be open for your convenience until 2 p.m. on September 30. Of course, the church will be open during regular hours on October 1 and 2. All donations should be delivered to the church by 8 a.m. on Wednesday, October 3.

We will need a lot of volunteers. A sign-up sheet is on the Opportunities Counter in the church hallway. We especially need lots of help on set-up day, October 3, as we try to size the clothing. We have been doing this for the past two years and our customers are very appreciative, but this is very time consuming. We also need a lot of help on Friday at 11 a.m. when we pack up our left-over rummage; men are especially valued during this time.

We thank you in advance for your donations and/or your actual help at the sale. It is always amazing how our discarded clothes and household items are considered blessings to the persons who purchase them. If you have any questions, please contact one of the following persons:

Barb Levine            429-8646
Mary Sundblad        429-6329

Saints Needed

One of the key transitional periods in the life of our congregation is when our youth leave home to pursue their dreams through higher education.

The transition to the new independence of college has a different effect on each student. Some find this to be a relatively easy and exciting time in their lives, while others struggle feeling lost and lonely.

It is essential for us to remember that our college students are an extension of our local congregation. We need to remember how important it is for us to show these students that they have not been forgotten and will continue to receive our loving care and support.

College can be a wonderful stepping stone to adulthood. It is a time of intellectual, social and personal growth. The encouragement to continue to grow in one's faith relationship with Jesus Christ and the church is vital.

If you would like to serve our college students while they are away at school, consider being a Secret Saint. Through a variety of ways, Secret Saints can extend care and support to our college students, as well as encourage them through prayer.

The requirements are few, but the rewards are great. We ask that each Saint be in contact with their student at least one time per month through a card, care package or e-mail and to hold their student in daily prayer. Saints can be an individual person, a family, 2 people working together, or another creative combination I haven't thought of, yet!

Please sign up at the Opportunities Desk if you would like to be a blessing to one of our college students.

If you have any questions, please contact Nick Lesch at 429-4882 or e-mail youth@stevensvilleumc.org
