

August 30, 2018

Dear All Saints Family:

On this Labor Day Weekend I hope you will offer a prayer of thanks for the miraculous way God has matched your gifts to meet the needs of others in this world. In the church we call this our "vocation."

Pastor Eric's E Note

As you go about your "vocation" for the rest of the week and this Fall consider how God uses your gifts, skills, dedication and creativity to change the people around you and meet the needs of the world. It just might change your heart and perspective on work.

Have a great and safe Labor Day weekend,
Pastor Eric

Tuesday Coffee Hour Bible Study Begins September 18th 8:30 am

If you want to gather a crowd, serve Jean Toenges' cinnamon rolls. That is what we will be doing on Tuesday the 18th. In addition to the rolls we will be studying 1, 2, 3 John. In these short books of the Bible you will read some very familiar verses and some not so familiar. Even if you cannot be there every third Tuesday of the month drop in when you can. Sign-up at the High School, at signup.com http://signup.com/go/EjLeVNB or email me and let me know you are coming at eaune@allsaintsnya.org. We will reserve a roll for you or maybe two.

Sanctuary chairs

Great news! We only need 38 more chairs. Each chair costs $187.00. To gift or pledge a chair visit our homepage at www.allsaintsnya.org You can pay in full, make increment payments or pledge a chair with payment due by October 1, 2018. On the order form online or the envelope in the Sunday bulletin please fill out your name and "in memory", "in honor", or "to the Glory of God" along with the pledge section. Your name and memorial information will be listed in the bulletin at our Dedication Service on October 28.
