Bible Story: The Ten Bridesmaids. Matthew 25:1-12

I Want To Be Like...

Read the Bible Story from Matthew 25:1-12 with your family. Point out that the five foolish bridesmaids should have followed the example of the wise bridesmaids. Ask your family to think of wise people in your life. They should be people who go to church and follow God. Some suggestions might be grandparents, uncles, the parents of friends at church, the pastor, or other church workers. Make a list of similarities of these wise people. Some of them might be they go to church, they pray every day, they study the Bible, they obey God, they help others, they treat others with love, and they tell others about Jesus. Have each family member put these wise qualities on a piece of paper and put it where they will see it each day. Remind your family to look around you for people with these qualities and try to follow their good example.
