What would be your hope or vision for our government in our Nation? Explain.

How do we move from complaining about the way things are to creating viable alternatives?

What role can we as believers play in developing a moral response to the immorality, complacency, relativism and _____?

We are encouraged to pray for our nation and leaders? What does this look like?

Our forefathers understood that our nation's stability depended on God and its morality—What do you think has gone wrong? How important is living out Godly lives daily as believers?

How should our faith influence our politics?

What does “going to school” look like for you? How do you educate yourself in regards to learning about the candidates?

What does “voting your values” look like?

What types of characteristics will you look for in the candidate's that you support?

How can we restore the integrity of the Word of God to our lives, our congregation, and our communities?

Do you have the faith and hope that the world will repent and we would see revival in our lifetime? Why or why not?

How can we pray for you?

PRAY IT: Now that you have connected, explored and applied it—it is now time to tap into the power of prayer individually throughout the week as well as corporately praying for one another. Perhaps by sharing the real life challenges and blessings with one another this will help people see what God can do in their lives and will lead them into a plan of action.

The Importance of the Bible

George Washington: "It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible."

Thomas Jefferson: "The Bible is the cornerstone of liberty. . . . Students' perusal of the sacred volume will make us better citizens, better fathers, and better husbands."

Andrew Jackson: "That Book [the Bible] is the rock on which our Republic rests."

Ulysses S. Grant: "Hold fast to the Bible. . . . To the influence of this Book we are indebted for all the progress made in true civilization and to this we must look as our guide in the future."

Spirit of America

"Sir, my concern is not whether
God is on my side;
my greatest concern is to be
on God's side,
for God is always right."
-Abraham Lincoln
