Message Based Questions to help your personal Study & LifeGroup Discussions

 CONNECTING: Connecting to one another with a warm up question or through worship.

How would you feel if the people you work with decided to watch everything about your public and private life?

 EXPLORING IT: Review the sermon outline and explore the message by using the following Q's which will help you dig in a little deeper and make sure you get the message.

*The mission of the church is to transform the world through the life-changing message of Jesus for the glory of God.
By loving God, loving God's people and then loving the world.*

What does it mean to do right in the eyes of everybody?

What do the people who are watching our lives see when they look at our lives?

When they think of you, do they think of your faith? Do they know where you stand?

How well does our tongue reflect that we work for the King of Kings?

How well do our actions show that we work for the King of Kings?

When troubles come because of our faith and belief in God, what will we do?

What do you do when you can't both walk with God and please the people around you?

What are some of the lions you are facing today? What integrity tests are you facing?

How do we build the lion taming type of faith that Daniel had?

What key habits have you established in your life to protect you from the lions?

Why is it important to have consistent time in prayer and study in God's word?

What do you think Darius learned about God?

What do you dream God will do through your life?

What are things from the message and this discussion that God has revealed to you? How can we pray for you?

PRAY IT: Now that you have connected, explored and applied it—it is now time to tap into the power of prayer individually throughout the week as well as corporately praying for one another. Perhaps by sharing the real life challenges and blessings with one another this will help people see what God can do in their lives and will lead them into a plan of action.

May that be our epitaph!

They could find no corruption in him because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent.

Thinking back over the last 6 chapters of Daniel. How can the fact that God holds in his hand your life and all your ways help you to want to honor and obey Him as Daniel did?

Keep Pressing On!
