What is your favorite era in history? Any part of Jeff's great lesson stand out to you? Why?

Quick fill in the blanks:

Daniel's dream was interpreted by _____ ?

The ram signified _____ ?

The goat signified _____ ?

The four horns depict _____ ?

Who was the small horn _____ ?

Why do you think God permits the plans of the wicked to succeed and allows his followers to be tried and tested?

Why do you think God has allowed so much time and so many different governments to precede the coming of Christ and the setting up of the millennial kingdom?

What contribution did Alexander the Great make to the spread of the gospel?

How does the present balance of power in Europe and the Middle East relate to the events of the end-times?

List the facts about this cruel king. How will he use his power? What will he destroy? What will he succeed in doing? What do you think about all that?

What will he encourage people to do? What will he think? What will people think? What will he do to them? Against whom will he fight? What will happen then? What do you think about all that?

What does the angel tell Daniel to do about the dream? What else does he tell him about the dream? What do you think about those things?

What does this say about the authority of God's word and the inerrancy of Scripture? Why is the authority of scripture important for the Christian? For you?

What does this passage teach you about God? What does it teach you about mankind?

What was Daniel's reaction to the dream? What do you think about all that? Why do you think that the dream troubled Daniel?

How can we specifically pray for you?

 PRAY IT: Now that you have connected, explored and applied it—it is now time to tap into the power of prayer individually throughout the week as well as corporately praying for one another. Perhaps by sharing the real life challenges and blessings with one another this will help people see what God can do in their lives and will lead them into a plan of action.

Keep Pressing On!
