Message Based Questions to help your personal Study & LifeGroup Discussions

CONNECTING: Connecting to one another with a warm up question or through worship.

Fun Exercise:

Take a piece of paper and write down the name of six of your current neighbors or (six different families). Write down how many years they have lived there, what their occupation is if they are Christians, whether or not they have been inside your home, and if you've had a meaningful conversation with them in the last month.

EXPLORING IT: Review the sermon outline and explore the message by using the following Q's which will help you dig in a little deeper and make sure you get the message.

*The mission of the church is to transform the world through the life-changing message of Jesus for the glory of God.
By loving God, loving God's people and then loving the world.*

Why do you think we should play the game?

What would you say is your passion?

Who was the first person to introduce you to Jesus? How did they present it?

How do you prepare yourself to "take the field"?

Regarding evangelism, have any of you thought the following:

I need to master apologetics before I can share my faith...

I am not a people person and God has called me to serve...

Any Other thoughts: _____

Are you willing? If not how can we help you to become more willing to share your faith and "take the field"?

In what ways, do you develop friendships with unbelievers?

Who are you praying for? (perhaps we can start praying for these folks as a group)

How can we specifically pray for you today?

PRAY IT: Now that you have connected, explored and applied it—it is now time to tap into the power of prayer individually throughout the week as well as corporately praying for one another. Perhaps by sharing the real life challenges and blessings with one another this will help people see what God can do in their lives and will lead them into a plan of action.

Describe the events/circumstances that caused you to submit your life to Jesus Christ.

What life stage, were you in at the time?

What input did you receive that finally triggered your desire to ask Christ into your life?

What was the most significant thing about your making this decision?

Chances are there was someone involved in this process if there was, who was it?

Keep Pressing On!
