RESPONSIVE READING*

Barbara Harris (10:30 am)

“FORGIVENESS”

Leader: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

People: Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Leader: Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

People: Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Leader: Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.

People: Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Leader: Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

All: Bear one another and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

MORNING HYMN*

“Glory, Glory, Hallelujah”

Glory, glory, hallelujah,
since I laid my burden down.
Glory, glory, hallelujah,
since I laid my burden down.

Feel like shouting, "hallelujah,"
since I laid my burden down.
Feel like shouting, "hallelujah,"
since I laid my burden down.

Friends don't treat me like they used to
since I laid my burden down.
Friends don't treat me like they used to
since I laid my burden down.

I am climbing Jacob's ladder
since I laid my burden down.
I am climbing Jacob's ladder
since I laid my burden down.

I feel better, so much better
since I laid my burden down.
I feel better, so much better
since I laid my burden down.

Every round goes higher and higher
since I laid my burden down.
Every round goes higher and higher

WORD FROM PASTOR

Ten years ago, this August, I began my matriculation at American Baptist College, as a freshman. Burning with the passion of my calling and a fascination with the mystery of God, I began a journey that took me down paths I had not intended to travel. Not many days after my first class, the world changed. Emerging from my dorm room one Tuesday morning, I stood horrified as a jetliner crashed into the side of the second Twin Tower of the World Trade Center. In a moment, the blink of an eye, our world was thrown into a new space--an age of global terrorism--unparalleled to any period prior to September 11, 2001. I did not possess adequate theological tools to arrange the pieces of this tragedy. The best the tradition could give me, in its narrowness, was a fundamentalist reading of Isaiah 54:17: "No weapon formed against me shall prosper..." I soon discovered how woefully unprepared I was to represent the interests of the gospel in the face of a real struggle of powers and principalities.

Reflections on 9/11 from Lecture to Delegates of One-Day Practicum - February 2011
Wisconsin General Baptist State Convention - Congress of Christian Education

As the nation remembers the horror of this day of infamy, we gather in solemn reflection and prayer. We lift the families of those lost that day unto God, praying for their comfort. We hold the leaders of the nation in prayer because of their duty to maintain our security and defense. Certainly, we cannot forget the members of the respective branches of the military who are still in harm's way. They are true patriots, valiantly responding to the call of the nation--even when it means the giving of their lives. Then we pray for those who harbor hatred in their hearts for us and others around the world. We pray for God's grace and guidance; we pray for strength to make the journey.

Have a wonderful week!

ORDINARY TIME

In the context of the liturgical year the term "ordinary" means "not seasonal." It is that part of the church year that lies outside the seasons of Lent-Easter and Advent-Christmas. In Ordinary Time, the Church celebrates the mystery of Christ not in one specific aspect but in all its aspects.

Ordinary Time in the Church's year occurs in two sections. The first part begins following the Christmas season. It lasts through the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, and resumes after Pentecost. The Liturgical color for Ordinary Time is green.
