THE CALL TO WORSHIP*

The Reverend Don Darius Butler

HYMN OF ENTREATY*

"Come and Go With Me"

Come and go with me to my Father's house,
To my Father's house, to my Father's house.
Come and go with me to my Father's house;
There is peace, peace, peace.

Peace and love abide in my Father's house,
In my Father's house, in my Father's house.
Peace and love abide in my Father's house;
There is peace, peace, peace.

Peace and happiness there in my Father's house,
In my Father's house, in my Father's house.
Peace and happiness there in my Father's house;
There is peace, peace, peace.

Nothing but joy up there in my Father's house,
In my Father's house, in my Father's house.
Nothing but joy up there in my Father's house;
There is peace, peace, peace.

THE INVOCATION*

Deacon Bobby Morrow (7:45am)
Leonard Bethly (10:30 am)

SUNG RESPONSE*

"I Love the Lord, He Heard My Cry"

I love the Lord; He heard my cry,
And pitied every groan;
Long as I live, while troubles rise,
I'll hasten to His throne.

I love the Lord; He bowed His ear,
And chased my griefs away;
O let my heart no more despair,
While I have breath to pray!

“OUR ELDERS”

Leader: Sovereign God, we remember our elders of African descent. They fought courageously during times of war and peace. They built much of the United States of America with the knowledge, skill, and sweat of their brows. They also built their own institutions when denied admission to the institutions of others. They cared for their own needs and the needs of others. Despite many hardships, they sustained their families and communities.

People: We remember our elders today with pride.

Leader: They loved God. They created new means of expressing that love in their preaching and praying, in their spirituals and gospel music. They built churches and religious organizations, and expressed their faith in the lives they lived.

People: We remember our elders today with faith and reverence.

Leader: They gave us birth. They loved and cared for us. They passed a cherished heritage on to us. Our elders educated us and opened our eyes to the beauty of our past and the hopefulness of our future. They taught us to love ourselves and one another.

People: We remember our elders today with love and gratitude.

Leader: They filled their lives with art, poetry, and literature. They excelled whenever they were given the opportunity. They were brilliant, creative, and inventive. They painted, tapped, sculpted, drummed, hummed, sang, and shouted, leaving us a rich, imaginative legacy.

People: We remember our elders today with respect and appreciation.

Leader: Now let us be mindful of those elders whose names are lost to us in history, those who were washed away in the Middle Passage. Let us remember them before God.

(Silence)

Let us now call the names of the elders, living and departed, who in our lifetime have positively influenced our homes, churches, communities, and the world.

(Naming of elders by the congregation.)

We thank you, O God, for the elders you have given us.

All: Thanks be to God!

MORNING HYMN*

Time is filled with swift transition
Naught on earth unmoved can stand
Build your hopes on things eternal
Hold to God's unchanging hand

"Hold to God's Unchanging Hand"

When your journey is completed
If to God you have been true
Fair and bring your home in glory
Your enraptured soul will view

Trust in Him who will not leave you
Whatsoever years may bring
If by earthly friends forsaken
Still more closely to him cling

*Hold to His hand, God's unchanging hand
Hold to His hand, God's unchanging hand
Build your hope on things eternal
Hold to God's unchanging hand*

OUR RESPONSE TO THE WORD: INVITATION TO CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

THE INVITATION*

“If It Had Not Been For The Lord On My Side”

*If it had not, been for the Lord, on my side
Where would I be? Where would I be?
If it had not been for the Lord on my side
Where would I be? Where would I be?*

He kept my enemies away
He let the sun shine though a cloudy day
Oh, He wrapped me in the cradle of His arms
When He knew I' been battered and torn,

He never left me all alone
He gave me peace and joy I've never known
He answered when I knelt to Him in prayer
And in victory the Lord has brought me near,

FROM WORSHIP TO WITNESS: THE SENDING FORTH/BENEDICTION

PARTING SONG*

“God Be With You”

God be with you, God be with you
God be with you, 'til we meet again
God be with you, God be with you
God be with you, until we meet again

If we never more shall meet
If we never more shall greet
God, be with you, 'til we meet again
Keep on working for the Master
He'll be with you here and after
God be with you, until we meet again

SENDING FORTH & BENEDICTION*

Pastor Butler

Beloved, I am delighted to welcome the Reverend Gerald J. Joiner, his wife, Luevern, and members of the historic Zion Baptist Church of Louisville, Kentucky, to our worship today. They have come to share in the celebration of our second-year of ministry as pastor and people and the Coalition of Aging Annual Day. The pastor and people of Zion Baptist Church are special to me and La Keisha; we worshipped there during our time in Louisville, and Pastor and Mrs. Joiner were quite affirming of hospitable to us. Their visit affords me an opportunity to express my appreciation for the kindness we received at their hands. Members of Zion's choir will render special choral music in the worship and Pastor Joiner shall proclaim the gospel message. Let us host them in the tradition of Christian hospitality.

I support Mother Sammie Smith and the Coalition's invitation for members 55 years and older to join the ranks of the Coalition of Aging. This ministry sponsors events and programs of particular interest for members of this age group. This summer, I joined them for their annual lunch outing and enjoyed myself greatly. In many ways, this group is our church's wisdom circle and we should ensure that its witness continues in the congregation for generations to come. I salute the leaders and members of the Coalition today and renew my support for them as pastor.

Have a wonderful week!

ORDINARY TIME

In the context of the liturgical year the term “ordinary” means “not seasonal.” It is that part of the church year that lies outside the seasons of Lent-Easter and Advent-Christmas. In Ordinary Time, the Church celebrates the mystery of Christ not in one specific aspect but in all its aspects.

Ordinary Time in the Church's year occurs in two sections. The first part begins following the Christmas season. It lasts through the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, and resumes after Pentecost. The Liturgical color for Ordinary Time is green.
