Brothers and sisters in Christ,

In June Eileen and I had the opportunity to visit with brothers and sisters in Christ from around the world at the Anglican Church in North America Assembly held at St. Vincent Arch-Abbey and College, Latrobe, Pennsylvania. Lay men and women, archbishops, bishops, deacons and priests, and ecumenical guests from other orthodox churches around the States participated. The setting in the Laurel Mountains was beautiful, the basilica where we worshipped holy and soul inspiring, the Bible study and singing of familiar and new songs of praise and thanksgiving exhilarating, the teaching profound and life-changing, the fellowship so encouraging. Greeting old friends and making new friends ... it was a balm to our souls. I wish you were there. Really. And I pray you all will participate in the next one.

When I visit with members of the parish who are unable to participate in regular services here at Good Shepherd, I often hear similar comments made about our local church. They miss the very things that we enjoyed at the Assembly, well maybe not the archbishops and bishops, but the joy of being together with those who share The Faith to worship, sing, pray, laugh, have table fellowship, study and learn, and serve both in and outside the church.

It's got me thinking. Have I taken the local fellowship of Jesus' Church for granted? The Lord provides us with many similar opportunities weekly right here. Do I relish this gift that you are to me, and to one another? Do you? The Lord says in Romans 1.11-12, "I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to make you strong -- that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith." Someone who works on Sundays from time to time rushed into Sunday School class recently and was glowing because they were able to participate in class and worship. We were so encouraged to be with them too. I pray that we may grow in our appreciation for what the Lord graciously provides for each of us on a regular basis. I know I need you, and for you to encourage my faith. I thank the Lord Jesus for the privilege of doing the same for you.

We are securely His own forever,

Stan Burdosh +

All Saints Day

November 2

This Festival originated in the ancient Church as the observance of All Martyrs before the year 270 AD. In 370 AD, Ephrem the Deacon mentions the celebration in Edessa on May 13, and the Patriarch John Chrysostom, who died in 407 AD, says that the Festival of All Saints was observed on the first Sunday after Pentecost in Constantinople. The Eastern Church celebrates All Saints on the same day the Western Church celebrates Pentecost.

It is believed by many that the commemoration of All Saints on November 1 originated in Ireland, spread to England, and then to the continent of Europe. That it had reached Rome and had been adopted there early in the ninth century is attested by a letter of Pope Gregory the Fourth, who served from 828-844, to the Emperor Louis "the Pious," urging that such a festival be observed throughout the Holy Roman Empire.

We will celebrate the Festival of All Saints on Sunday, November 2, at both the 8:00 and 10:30 AM Holy Eucharist.
