ATONEMENT LUTHERAN PRESCHOOL

I love the beginning of the school year! There is so much potential to play, learn, and grow together! At Atonement Lutheran Preschool we have a unique and special job; not only do we teach wonderful 3-5 year olds, we get to do so in this wonderful faith-filled place. We get to help them learn their ABC's 123's as well as what it is to have a generous spirit and a glorious God!

We are starting the year with a great group of preschoolers, we are diving right in this month with learning what goes on at preschool; new routines, rules and procedures, how to's (hold a pencil, cut with a scissor, use a glue stick). We are learning about the color red, the circle shape, the number 1, and the letter Aa. We will be learning about the five senses and we will be working on an "All About Me" project.

This school year we will focus on Galatians 5:22-23 "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." In September, we will focus on self-control.

Thank you for the numerous donations of supplies! We are so thankful for the wish list donations! Also, thank you for giving to Love offering this past month which went to support our Preschool! Please consider giving to our scholarship fund to help students who are in need of financial assistances with their monthly tuition.

Atonement Lutheran Preschool is blessed to be a part of Atonement's ministry! Blessings,

Sara Westrope - Atonement Lutheran Preschool Director

PASTOR'S PAGE

Disturbing images have filled our media in recent weeks and months – and it's not just the reports of Islamic terror abroad. It is closer to home: scenes of white supremacists gathering in our communities around the cause of "preserving their heritage" only to fuel already fragile racial tensions; counter-protesters giving in to the maxim of, what Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. referred to as, "Hate begets hate; violence begets violence; and toughness begets a greater toughness."; all resulting in a tragic loss of life – and an even greater tragic loss of human decency, dignity and discourse.

These are troubled times. The Bishop of North Carolina Synod-ELCA, Pastor Tim Smith, shared in a pastoral letter a conversation he had with a colleague who lamented, "It's 2017, and I have to preach a sermon on why Nazism is bad." This lament is a reminder that hatred and evil have always been with us – from the time of Cain and Abel to our modern age – lurking just beneath the surface. But something once again has unleashed them, empowered them, given them permission and encouragement, voice and influence.

Yes, these are troubled times – but there is no greater time to be the church!

The words of the Apostle Paul are fresh in my mind, having just completed a Bible study on Ephesians. In this pastoral letter, Paul addresses a conflicted Christian community with the powerful reminder of God's work in Jesus Christ, "For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us." (2:14) Jesus tears down such dividing walls of racism, sexism, social class, culture and language that prevent us from loving and caring for the neighbor.

Throughout Ephesians, Paul makes it clear that in the waters of our baptism, we are called to "strive together" in God's work in this world through the love of Jesus Christ.

This idea is articulated in the continuation of King's quote "We must meet the forces of hate with the power of love." Now, this is no sentimental, passive, capitulating kind of love. Rather, it is a courageously humble, self-giving, sacrificial, inclusive kind of love. It is a kind of love which affirms that when God declares his love for the world, it is for the whole world. It is a kind of love that compels us to action so that the truth be spoken, evil be denounced, justice be demanded, and peace be pursued.

I will share with you the excerpt from a recently published document entitled, Statement of Lutheran Clergy Rejecting White Supremacy, Terrorism, and Violence. The statement offers a clear denunciation of such evils, yet humbly confesses our collective culpability. It recognizes our tradition's difficult history with racism and bigotry – particularly our history in Nazi Germany when our Lutheran church "sacrificed their faith to nationalistic fervor that betrayed the inclusive nature of the Gospel and became complicit with oppression and violence."

We have an imperfect, flawed and – yes – even sinful history. This behavior has truly been "close to home." Yet, this is no cause to remain silent. We are not imprisoned to our past. God continues to call us out of darkness into light; from death to life; from bondage to freedom. We can do better. With that... I'll conclude with the excerpt:

"...as both Christian leaders and as American citizens who cherish the freedoms of belief, assembly, and speech this country protects, we call upon all leaders – religious, civic, and corporate – to speak out in the clearest of terms to oppose racism, bigotry, and violence whenever and wherever it may happen. Neither our words nor our actions will be perfect, and we will fall short of ideals. Yet speak and act we must, once more dedicating ourselves to the cause of giving "bigotry no sanction [and] persecution no assistance." For when we remain silent, the whole nation suffers and we betray our responsibilities as stewards of the unparalleled religious and political freedoms our nation affords."

Peace in Christ,
Pastor Darren

Sunday School Needs . . .

For this upcoming year of Sunday School at Atonement we need to purchase 10 chairs that suit our 3rd and 4th grade students better and two whiteboards for the classrooms. Any financial contribution for these additions would be a blessing for the Sunday School ministries.

3rd Grade Bibles

On September 24, 2017 Bibles will be handed out to the 3rd Graders during the Sunday School Hour. Our goal is for young people to get to know the Bible. That it's not just a book but a library, where Christ is at the center of both the Old and New Testaments. Growing in faith they will have their own bible to bring to church, following along with the scripture lessons during worship and in Sunday school class, exploring God's written word during family and personal devotion times. To make it their own, "the best bible is a used bible" asking the students to pass their bible around to grandparents, godparents and other important people in your faith life and have them highlight or underline favorite verses, write prayers or blessing for the child and then to return their bibles to the church on Sunday, October 22nd so we can add our own blessings. Sunday, October 29, Reformation Sunday, Pastor Darren will then present the bibles to each 3rd grader during the morning worship service. Grandparents, godparents, relatives and friends are invited to this special event.

Nikki Groshans - Sunday School Director

Thank you for your expression of sympathy. Thank you to the ladies in the kitchen! Thank you again for all your work.

Eddy Baker and Family

Thank you to everybody that helped support the youth ministries at both Mooyah! Burger and at the Atonement Concert in August. It is because of your support that allows the youth of the congregation to experience their faith on activities outside of the church building, such as the Denver Learning and Service Pilgrimage, Christikon Bible Camp, and the ELCA Youth Gathering.

Atonement Youth

MUSIC NOTES

The month of September begins a new season of church services and music opportunities! Chapel Choir begins Wednesday, September 13th at 7:00 in our sanctuary. Music for our Sunday School begins as the kiddos gather for their classes on September. Our youth praise bands will be rehearsing during September to get our bands tuned up to play for worship. Watch for Saturday rehearsals! Our brass group will be rehearsing some Reformation music and you'll be hearing more brass music this season. On September 17th, stop by the worship and music table at our Ministry Fair to learn more about music opportunities at Atonement! Peace and Harmony,

Kristin La Ve' - Director of Worship and Music

OUTDOOR MINISTRY will be taking the month of September off as it is Archery season. We will start again in late October with our monthly gatherings to shoot archery, watch the weekly announcements for details.

Christikon Clips September 2017

It's completed! Our exceptional staff has gone back to their lives outside of camp, the campers are preparing for school to start, and we begin the planning for 2018. It has been a blessed adventure!

We hosted campers from Minnesota, South Dakota, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming and Montana. Wonderful opportunity to connect with people from these out of state congregations and forge long lasting friendships and share the Christikon experience.

Our special guest speakers, Pastor Steve Schmidt, Professor Karyn Wiseman and songwriter Johnny Hermanson lead our family adult sessions into great conversations about resisting the temptation not to get involved and be the Good Samaritan in this world, and the role of music in our faith journey and worship.

Fall Retreats: We have retreats scheduled into October with dates still available. Bring your group and enjoy fall in the mountains!

Thank you for your prayers for Christikon this summer, for the summer staff as they transition back to "real life", and for all who have joined in the Christikon life. We ask for your continued prayers and support.

It is the mission of Christikon to awaken and nurture faith in Christ — exploring God's creation and the adventure of life together.

ADULT EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Wednesday Adult Bible Study 10:00AM at the Little White Church

In the book of Exodus, we learn that God prepares, calls, leads and forgives a chosen people - then and now. In this study, we will consider the stories from Exodus that are central to the Old Testament and explore how the themes of these stories continue to be central to our lives today.

- Sept. 6 A Page is Turned: How is God preparing us to continue the story? (Exodus 1:8-14; 1:22-2:22)
- Sept. 13 Discerning the Call: Why me? Couldn't someone else go instead? (Exodus 3:1-16; 4:10-17)
- Sept. 20 A Plague on Your House: How is God at work in human history? (Exodus 7:1-13; 12:1-14)
- Sept. 27 Let My People Go! How does God lead and provide for the needs of all? (Exodus 14:19—15:1; 16:11-15)

Study's led by Pastor Darren

Adult Forum – Sunday mornings at 9:15am in Jerusalem Room

- Sept. 10 No Forum – God's Work, Our Hands Sunday
- Sept. 17 Rally Sunday – Ministry Fair in Commons Area
- Sept. 24 Atonement Youth Share on Summer Journeys

Sidewalk Update

The connectivity path to WyndStone is slowly progressing. You have probably noticed the appearance of some fill dirt to create a smooth grade for an ADA compliant pathway. We have been receiving free fill dirt from excavators who are digging new foundations in our neighborhood. In an effort to save on costs, we have been at the mercy of available dirt from contractors. Thanks to Jack Beals and Bill/Judy Belden for the site development and Cal/Rane Paulson for the use of their front end loader. Once finish grade is established, the final course of the pathway will be marked and bids from concrete contractors can be gathered and selected.

Lutheran World Relief School Kits - Update

Thanks to all who brought items for the school kits. We have collected enough materials to complete 40 kits and enough to partially fill 150 more.

To complete these kits we need the following:
210 ball point pens (blue or black ink) no gel pens

36- 24 count crayons

352-70 count spiral notebooks

150 rulers w/ cm

88 blunt scissors

Thanks again for all your help. Please call Julie Leno at 248-5359 with any questions.

Planned Giving Forum

On Thursday, September 28 at 7:00pm, our Endowment Fund Committee will host a dessert forum with guest speaker Rachel Simonson who is a Certified Financial Planner with St. John's Lutheran Ministries. She has been instrumental in helping donors find the most efficient and beneficial way to make philanthropic gifts that will have an enduring impact on the mission of their ministries – and has offered to assist us with our needs at Atonement Lutheran!

We will explore a wide range of options from which to choose when giving to the Atonement Lutheran Endowment Fund:

- Gifts made in your will or trust
- Gifts that pay you income
- Gifts of life insurance or retirement plan assets

The Endowment Fund has been a proven financial vehicle for furthering our outreach ministry into the community – while offering creative, alternative ways for donors to make contributions with mutual financial benefits. In the past, the earnings from our Endowment Fund have helped:

- Tumbleweed Program
- Skyview/Castlerock Food Pantries
- Christikon Lutheran Bible Camp
- Blessed Beginnings Preschool
- Volunteers of America
- Habitat for Humanity

If you wish to attend, please RSVP to Donna Newell at 248-1899 or dnewell@bresnan.net by Wednesday, September 20 that we may plan accordingly for our dessert forum.

MINISTRY FAIR – RALLY SUNDAY, SEPT. 17 @ 9:15AM

Is your ministry looking for new participants?

Do you want to share news about the good work you are doing?

Are there exciting opportunities that you would like to explore?

Trying to recruit helpers for an upcoming event?

Then do we have an opportunity for you! On Rally Sunday, there will be display space on a table in the Commons Area for you to “strut your stuff!” Consider the following:

A tag board display with info of ministry events, accomplishments, and opportunities

Items on the table that exemplify or represent your ministry

Sign-up sheets for upcoming projects

Info sheet of activities that people can walk away with “in-hand”

...candy is always a good “lure!”

Or whatever you can imagine!

What do you need to do?

Contact Pastor Darren to indicate your participation and we'll plan space for you!

Let us know if you need something other than table space (easel, bulletin board, etc.)

Arrive prior to end of 8:00am service to set up your “stuff”

Have a friendly representative of your ministry available to answer any questions
