

Clarke 2015 Year in Review

2015 was an eventful year. We are grateful for all who prayed for and gave to the work of Bible translation. On behalf of our family, the people we work with, and the many communities this work impacts we say, Thank You!

This Year In Review seeks to capture a little of our year, mostly in pictures.

Mongu Cluster Project in Western Province, Zambia

Jesus Film Completed - Kwangwa, Kwamashi, Nkoya
Jesus Film Script Approved - Fwe, Makoma, Shanjo (recording this year)

Luke Printed - Fwe, Kwamashi
Luke Typeset - Makoma, Kwangwa, Shanjo (printing this year)

Verse 3
In Caesarea there lived an officer named Cornelius, captain of the Italian Regiment.

Computers, Nshima, and Travel, oh my!

Three new consultants in this workshop series

Alphasmart Neo used for keyboarding translation

Cooking nshima for lunch

And Back in Dallas...
BT Conference 2015

BT Conference 2015: Bible Translation and Transformation

- ◆ The eighth biennial Bible Translation Conference (BT2015) held October 16-20 in nearby Duncanville, TX
- ◆ 93 papers about BT Theory, Practice, Training, Technology, the BT Context of today, and Scripture Engagement
- ◆ The largest BT conference to date, with 450 attendees

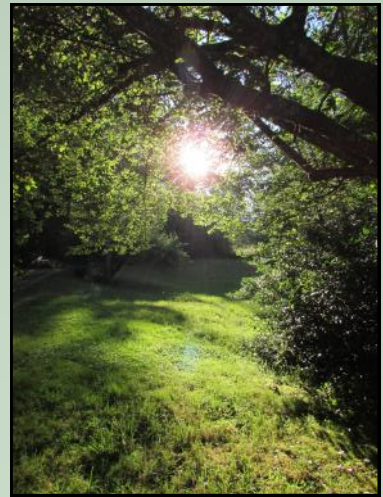

Thankful for God's Provision

- ◇ Safety in Travel:
 - ◇ Over 8,000 miles of interstate driving in the summer
 - ◇ Nearly 60,000 miles flown during the year
- ◇ A Great Support Team:
 - ◇ 37 Individuals and
 - ◇ Seven churches who partnered with us financially
 - ◇ Countless prayer partners
- ◇ Good scholarships for Alyssa and Brianna to be able to attend college.
- ◇ Becky's job as a teacher's aide supplements our income and now provides us greater freedom in the summer to travel and visit partners
- ◇ The beauty of God's creation

Visiting with Family and Partners

The Family

