Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

PREPARATION

The pastor's entrance and the beginning of the musical prelude are the calls to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

THE GATHERING

*We are standing on Holy ground,
And I know that there are angels all around.*

Let us praise Jesus now, We are standing in God's presence on Holy Ground.

LITANY

- Leader: Let us remember all your sheep, O Lord, those of this fold and those not of this fold.
- People: Lest we forget that you are the Good Shepherd of all.
- Leader: When they worship you by other names, let us remember that you have not left yourself without witnesses in any place,
- People: Lest we forget that you are the Good Shepherd of all.
- Leader: When they define goodness by other standards, let us remember that you turned a lecherous murderer into a righteous king.
- People: Lest we forget that you are the Good Shepherd of all.
- Leader: When they perpetrate deeds of utter selfishness, let us remember that the Lord judges the thoughts of our hearts as well as the deeds of their hands,
- People: Lest we forget that you are the Good Shepherd of all.
- Leader: When they express mindless prejudice, let us remember the log in our eyes before condemning the speck in theirs,
- People: Lest we forget that you are the Good Shepherd of all.
- Leader: When they commit crimes of wanton violence, let us remember that you alone can separate the goats from the sheep,
- People: Lest we forget that you are the Good Shepherd of all.
- ALL: Grant us, O Lord, by whatever name we call you, so to live in your love, that we may be united in your service.

OPENING HYMN

“HE LEADETH ME”

He leadeth me! O blessed thought! O words with heav’nly comfort fraught!
Whate’er I do, where’er I be, still ‘tis God’s hand that leadeth me.

CHORUS: He leadeth me, He leadeth me, by His own hand He leadeth me;
His faithful foll’wer I would be, for by His hand He leadeth me.

Sometimes ‘mid scenes of deepest gloom, sometimes where Eden’s bowers bloom,
By waters still, o’er troubled sea, still ‘tis His hand that leadeth me! CHORUS

Lord, I would clasp Thy hand in mine, nor ever murmur nor repine;
Content, whatever lot I see, since ‘tis my God that leadeth me. CHORUS

And when my task on earth is done, when by Thy grace the vict’ry’s won,
E’en death’s cold wave I will not flee, since God thru Jordan leadeth me. CHORUS

MOMENTS OF REFLECTION

The Voices of Metropolitan

INVITATION TO LIFE IN CHRIST

This church will welcome into its membership any persons who love and accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, and who promise to live according to His laws of Love, recognizing all people as brothers and sisters for whom He gave His life.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

Communion Prayer

We do not presume to come to this, Thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in Thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs from under Thy table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to partake of this sacrament of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, that we may walk in newness of life and grow to reflect Thy Spirit in all things forevermore, Amen.

(We will eat and drink together after all have been served.)

FELLOWSHIP CIRCLE

We've come too far to turn back now; By the grace of God we're gonna make it somehow.
Nobody knows the trouble we've seen; We've come too far to turn back now.

The miracles in the spirit? What are they? The resolving of inner conflict upon which all the lances of the mind have splintered and fallen helplessly from the hand; the daring of the spirit that puts to rout the evil deed and the decadent unfaith; the experiencing of new purposes which give courage to the weak, hope to the despairing, life to those burdened by sin and failure; the quality of reverence that glows within the mind, illumining it with incentive to bring under the control of Spirit all the boundless fruits of knowledge; the necessity for inner and outer peace as the meaning of all men's striving; the discovery that the "Covenant of Brotherhood" is the witness of the work of the Spirit of God in the life of man and the hymn of praise offered to Him as Thanksgiving and Glory!

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

Metropolitan Interdenominational Church is a community of believers inclusive of all and alienating to none, leading the way to spiritual growth by sharing God's love with the world.

THE JESUS FACTOR

THE JESUS FACTOR represents an aspect of life which is not regularly included in our calculations of what is or is not possible. In today's text, John 6:1-21, when Jesus asked the question, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat," the answer Philip gives does not seem to appreciate who is doing the asking. With all of the great advancements and accomplishments in the world there are still many critical issues that go unaddressed just because of our disregard for THE JESUS FACTOR. In reading the teachings of Jesus we see clear evidence of how his interventions transform the impossible into the possible. Thus, as the body of Christ, we should not stand on the sideline of life and silently accept the world's determination of things being impossible when THE JESUS FACTOR has not been added to the equation. If we apply THE JESUS FACTOR to health care reform there would be no such thing as people having to endure the devastation of sickness without having avenues to wellness. Likewise, THE JESUS FACTOR, with its uncompromising love for all of humankind, could help us to see our way to address the complexities of poverty, violence, education, marriage, gender, sexuality, racism and all of the other issues that seem to be beyond our ability to deal with. There is no limit to the application of THE JESUS FACTOR.
