

The Montcalm Coalition to Prevent Underage Drinking

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS ~ MARCH 25, 2011

Meeting Highlights is intended to provide a brief summary of key MCPUD activities, decisions, and other relevant information. MCPUD members are encouraged to share this document with others. Contact L Quinn Lincoln for more information (989-831-4591.) Meeting minutes are available at www.mcpcud.org under “about us.”

Highlights:

- It was decided to have pizza box toppers and ads in football schedules as awareness items. Also, it was suggested that MCPUD develop our own restaurant placemat (with other organizations) for distribution at the end of the year.
- Event schedule was passed around and member signed up for events. It was also suggested that our full membership (active and supportive members) be contacted regarding events to see who would like to help. Current event schedule includes: Pan Handle Expo (April 29th), Carson City Frontier Days (June 4th), Lakeview Summerfest (June 17th), Stanton Old Fashioned Days (August 13th), Early Childhood Conference (September 24th), Evening of GrACE – Greenville (October 4th).
- P. Spittka shared that the website is continually being updated and changed. He encouraged all members to visit, especially those who have not been in a while. L Q. Lincoln will be collecting photos and bios from members to send to P. Spittka for member pages.
- The first quarterly Business Summit meeting will be held April 19th at 1:30 at the Life Guidance Wellness and Prevention office in Stanton. All those who attended the Business Summit have been invited to attend. Additionally, T. Reeves, J. Kroneck and L Q. Lincoln will be meeting with Sen. Emmons and Rep. Outman along with Michigan Liquor Control Commission to discuss the concerns that arose from the Business Summit.
- The Governing Board approved a youth grant for an event that J. Tyler was holding in Carson City. J. Tyler shared his program and follow up agenda. He asked for help developing a plan to share this with other schools. J. Kroneck will meet with him.
- The school policy review has become a much larger undertaking that originally thought. More work will be done and presented.
- L Q. Lincoln will attend the Shoulder to Shoulder – training of trainers.

Next meeting: April 29, 2011 9 am – 11am – United Lifestyles office in Greenville.
