“Impressions of Jesus” Art Display

Our student group at the University of the Fraser Valley did another noon hour free lunch outdoors in the middle of campus. An art display called “Impressions of Jesus” featured caricatures with quotes from famous pop-culture icons about Jesus. Bono, Katie Perry, Einstein, Jesus, and Richard Dawkins quotes proved to be a great conversation starters.

Around 150-200 students stopped by for lunch. Several verbally shared their impressions of Jesus and wrote on the dry erase board. Feeding hungry students and sharing Christ in a creative way made for a great afternoon. It was fun to help prep the lunch hang out on campus with the students. It was a joy to see them in action. We thank Cobs Bread for donating the sandwich bread, and the University for paying for the rest of the lunch!

Our students had several conversations about Jesus

40 Year Campus Ministry Reunion

The campus group Nancy and I were part of as students at Western Washington University (WWU) celebrated 40 years of fruitful ministry a few days ago. It was great to visit and catch up with so many "old" friends and meet new people. Hundreds attended the weekend festivities.

Fun facts: 222 campus ministry interns have been trained over the last 4 decades under the direction of Brady Bobbink.

A notable BC connection is that seven interns have been trained and sent out from WWU to British Columbia campuses over the years. Worship service combining 40 years of WWU grads

Thank you for continuing with us in ministering to generations students,
