The Bigger Picture

It is great to be part of any team that is successful win or lose. Successful teams have a high level of trust and often talk about being like "family." Managers, coaches, doctors, trainers, volunteers, and sponsors all work together behind the scenes so that the team can succeed. Many of you empower this ministry team on the front lines for fruitful kingdom work. I am so glad to be part of this great family! Thank you for standing with us to serve students!

Our 2011 BC campus missionary team is a group of visionary people focused on serving 100's of university students. The campus staff gathered on Thetis Island in April for a 2 day retreat of prayer, sharing, planning, and fun. We grew together more as a "family." We recently added 4 new staff to the team (not pictured) of which 3 are apprentices in training. We also added an experienced campus missionary at BC Institute of Technology. We are also grateful for an additional 4 campus volunteers giving their time with students. In all, we anticipate 22 workers being deployed on 9 BC campuses this fall.

It is also a privilege to be part of a national team helping implement the vision of establishing campus ministries across Canada. Last week I had the opportunity in Montreal to meet with a brilliant group of colleagues focused on the future. I am very pleased to say that the initiative to plant 8 new campuses across Canada is being fulfilled. We only have one Province left to start something new. 5 years ago we had 16 campus groups across Canada. Today there are 30—to God be the glory. We are trusting God for 20 more campus ministries to be planted by 2020. (20X20)

The Family

Levi is working in a mining camp in the remote reaches of the Yukon. He is living in tents and building drilling platforms for the summer earning money for school. Sarah is taking classes, working full-time (just promoted to shift supervisor at Starbucks), and continues assisting mothers giving birth. Julia is graduating from high school in a few days and is leaning toward culinary school in January. Paul's band has done well in competitions and now will earn some money at their next gig. Nancy continues being a light in the marketplace working for the city part-time. We celebrated 26 years of marriage on June 15.

On a final note, we ask for your prayers for my dad who is diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. I admire his positive attitude and trust in the Lord through it all.

We rest in the goodness of God and thank you for your part in the journey with us,

Serving Our Lord,

John & Nancy Engels
