

Sen. Paul Shin is a crucial vote in the debate to redefine marriage in Washington. Please take a moment and contact him:

Phone: 360-786-7640

If marriage is redefined: (1) public schools will teach that there is no difference between heterosexual and homosexual relationships, (2) the idea that kids don't need a mother and father will be reinforced, and (3) conscience rights will be lost as those who do not support same-sex "marriage" will be at odds with state law.

Please make a courteous phone call to Sen. Shin and tell him you do not support efforts to redefine marriage: 360-786-7640

For more information on this bill go to www.fpiw.org/marriage

Sen. Paul Shin is a crucial vote in the debate to redefine marriage in Washington. Please take a moment and contact him:

Phone: 360-786-7640

If marriage is redefined: (1) public schools will teach that there is no difference between heterosexual and homosexual relationships, (2) the idea that kids don't need a mother and father will be reinforced, and (3) conscience rights will be lost as those who do not support same-sex "marriage" will be at odds with state law.

Please make a courteous phone call to Sen. Shin and tell him you do not support efforts to redefine marriage: 360-786-7640

For more information on this bill go to www.fpiw.org/marriage

Sen. Paul Shin is a crucial vote in the debate to redefine marriage in Washington. Please take a moment and contact him:

Phone: 360-786-7640

If marriage is redefined: (1) public schools will teach that there is no difference between heterosexual and homosexual relationships, (2) the idea that kids don't need a mother and father will be reinforced, and (3) conscience rights will be lost as those who do not support same-sex "marriage" will be at odds with state law.

Please make a courteous phone call to Sen. Shin and tell him you do not support efforts to redefine marriage: 360-786-7640

For more information on this bill go to www.fpiw.org/marriage