The idea of a spiritual heart transplant is a vivid image to me; once you have the heart of somebody else inside you, then that heart is there. Jesus' heart is inside me, and my heart is gone. So if God were to place a stethoscope against my chest, he would hear the heart of Jesus Christ beating.

Meet our Members!

The Polley Vow Renewal Adventure

I would like to thank our Emmanuel Family for allowing, and dealing so well with my absence over the 4th of July holiday.

Ron, CindyMarie, and Luke Polley getting ready at camp.

As many of you already know, my husband Ron and I were married 27 years ago this July 4th! During our first camping trip of 2017... back in January... we decided we were going to renew our wedding vows this year, as we do our favorite summertime activity! We floated down the St. Joe river! Along the way, our only son, Luke (who just graduated High School, and has become an ordained marriage minister) led us in renewing our wedding vows, with all of us in full wedding regalia, in the fellowship of 19 of our newest and oldest best of friends, as we floated down the river with them from Marble Creek to Calder, Idaho.

Thanks to all who have sent their love and congratulations our way!

Getting the floaties ready to launch!

So many Emmanuel friends have been asking about the event, I thought I would share some pictures of this wonderful, memorable time! Thanks again!

Palouse Habitat for Humanity Announces Family for 2017 Home

Moscow, ID (July 25, 2017) – Palouse Habitat for Humanity is proud to announce that Amber Minard and her two boys will be the Habitat Future Homeowner for the 2017 home.

Minard was selected from a pool of 4 applicants based on criteria that included need, ability to make mortgage payments, and ability to be a successful Habitat homeowner. The Habitat Family Selection committee carefully reviewed their financial history, ran credit and background checks, conducted interviews and consulted references as part of the process.

Amber Minard works as a stylist at Fantastic Sam's in Moscow. Her boys are Nicholas (8) and Kyzaiah (4). "Life has knocked me down more times than I can count but I always get back up and become stronger for it. This house means so much to me and my boys. We will have a place of our own that we won't have to move out from. They will have a safe place to grow up where we can have animals that they have been begging me for. We are extremely excited and happy to work with the community to build our home."

As a Habitat Future Homeowner, Minard will spend 300 hours helping build the home alongside volunteers, participate in financial education and home maintenance classes, save a down payment of $1000 and purchase the home from Palouse Habitat once completed.

Construction is already underway on the home in Potlatch. To volunteer or make a financial gift to purchase building materials, visit www.palousehabitat.org.

Palouse Habitat for Humanity is the local affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International. It was established in 1992 and has built homes in Albion, Colfax, Pullman, Moscow, Genesee, Palouse, Uniontown and now Potlatch. Our mission is to serve our neighbors in need by working to eliminate poverty housing on the Palouse and worldwide. Volunteers build simple, decent, affordable and energy efficient homes for those in need who meet Habitat's selection criteria.

For more information on Palouse Habitat for Humanity and ways to make a difference in your community, visit www.palousehabitat.org or contact Doug Arlt, Board President, or Jennifer Wallace, Executive Director, at 208.883.8502 or director@palousehabitat.org.

ALTAR GUILD IN 15 EASY STEPS!

Before church

1. Hey! The Eternal Flame is eternal... no need to light it! But if the light bulb is burned out, please replace it (extra bulbs are in the cupboard!)
2. Make sure the baptismal font has water in it (use ONLY distilled water in the bowl or put the smaller bowl inside the larger one if no distilled water is available).
3. Put bite-sized pieces of bread, naan, or pita bread (about 120 pieces; or use communion wafers) in the wicker bowl. Add in 5-7 gluten free crackers. Cover with the bread cloth (don't put the bread cloth in the basket first, just cover the elements with the cloth).
4. Fill the wine carafe 2/3 full. Put both the wicker bowl and the carafe on the table in the narthex.
5. Fill cups in 2 wooden trays with wine and cups in 1 wooden tray with white grape juice (unless it's preschool Sunday or a baptism, then fill 2 trays with grape juice). On Easter fill 4 trays with wine (port) and 2 trays with grape juice. Put the grape juice tray on top so it's easy to grab a cup before communion for the acolyte.
6. Put one corporal, one purificator, one chalice, and the communion trays on the table by the pulpit. Put both baskets (with towels in the bottom) on the table, too.
7. Check to make sure the altar candles have oil.

During the service

1. Be on stand-by to help the communion assistants switch baskets and wine trays, or in case we run out of bread/wine.
2. Help 'clear' the table after communion (remove the items from the altar while Pastor gives communion to those who can't make it up).

After the service

1. From the communion trays – Drink the unused grape juice or wine, pour into a cup and share, or dump it on the ground outside. DO NOT put the wooden trays in the fridge. Swap cups to a metal tray if you want to save full cups for next week.
2. Drink the wine in the chalice, share it with others, or dump it outside.
3. Serve the unused bread at fellowship or dump it outside on the ground.
4. Wash the cups (either upstairs or in the Saint Saver trays in the dishwasher).
5. Dump out the water in the baptismal font if dirty and wipe the bowl dry.
6. Put everything away and wipe down the counter top.

Other items you can help with:

Are there lots of dirty linens? Take them home, soak them in Oxiclean overnight, wash, dry, iron (and return!).
Is the carafe dirty? Take it home, put in some vinegar for about an hour, then wash and return.

EMMANUEL MISSION ENDOWMENT

The Emmanuel Mission Endowment is a fund established to manage designated and non-designated gifts intended to provide an ongoing benefit for the ministry of the church and her mission work.

The Mission Endowment is a standing Committee of the ELC Council. The assets of the Emmanuel Mission Endowment are owned by the Emmanuel Lutheran Church of Moscow, Idaho.

The Mission Endowment Committee is responsible for all Mission Endowment leadership and management activities. Its major objectives are to encourage, accept, acknowledge, invest, and make distributions from the Mission Endowment at the direction and approval of the Council and congregation.

The Committee works with other standing committees, Council, and the congregation to identify, screen, and recommend mission work and projects that may receive funding as directed by the congregation.

On All Saint's Sunday, November 5 2017, the Emmanuel Congregation:

- joins together for a Potluck Celebration during Fellowship Hour;

Pastor's Discretionary Fund

The Pastor's Discretionary Fund is used by the Pastor to assist individuals and families that are in need. Most often it is used to assist people who stop by the church office and request assistance for basic needs. Community organizations may also refer to Pastor, persons who need assistance. Pastor investigates each case by checking in with the Sheriff's Office and or Latah County Social Services both of which share a common data base that can spot repeating requests and persons to keep an eye on. These requests to the Pastor's Discretionary fund may be:

- ◆ They are homeless and need a place to stay for a night or two. The fund can provide temporary hotel housing for up to 3 nights while other arrangements are being made. Pastor will assist these people in connecting with local resources. Most people may receive housing assistance up to 2 times per year, however circumstances and situations may direct more assistance... especially when there are children involved.

- ◆ They may need assistance with utilities that are about to be denied. Pastor calls the utility provider and helps to set up a payment plan that includes an initial payment from the Discretionary Fund.

- ◆ They are traveling through town and need gasoline or vehicle repairs so they can continue to their destination. Their personal resources are depleted. Pastor assists them in purchasing fuel or finding a mechanic who can repair their vehicle for a reasonable rate.

- ◆ People need to see a doctor or need medicine. Pastor uses the Moscow Clinic to provide these services. They may need a prescription filled and this is done through Rosauers Pharmacy.

- ◆ People may need food. They are connected with our local food bank and/or food is given from our ELC kitchen surplus or is purchased by Pastor.

- ◆ Preschool families sometimes need assistance with, rent, utilities, food, medicine, clothing or tuition.

ELC has the gracious ministry of "loaves and fishes," assisting people with their most basic needs. This is a very "hands on" ministry through our Pastor.

The Pastor's Discretionary Fund is in need of your financial support.

Could your support for the Pastor's Discretionary Fund be above and beyond your usual gracious giving? If you are able to, please give a separate offering ear marked for the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.

(Our Church Treasurer and our Pastor administrate the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.)

If you know of a member who might benefit from this gesture, or would like be on the list to provide a meal or deliver a prepared meal, please contact us.

• Quiet Room Attendant?

(5 minutes): At the end of worship you need to wipe down the counters, door knobs, table and chairs. Also, do a quick clean up of toys, if necessary. If bathroom or diaper genie needs immediate attention, please take care of this as well, otherwise, our cleaning service will clean during the week.

HOW CAN WE HELP IMMIGRANTS?

A new church member—a recent African immigrant—described what his Christian mother taught him: “When someone comes to you and needs food and shelter, you give it to them. The next day you can ask them: What is your story?” The immigrant story touches every community and congregations have always welcomed newcomers. Typically, one in ten people attending a worship service in the US are immigrants—they were born outside the US. Further, one in five worshippers are children of immigrants because one or both of their parents were born in another country.<sup>1</sup>

Do Labels Matter?

Conflating the categories of immigrant, migrant, and refugee reaps serious consequences for the health and safety of these newcomers. When considering issues related to the movement of people between countries, disagreement and confusion abound around the correct label. For the purposes of this issue, “immigrant” is the umbrella term for persons who moved from their country of birth to a new country. Migrants and refugees are terms for particular types of immigrants.

What is an immigrant? In the broadest terms, an immigrant is a person, born in one country, who chooses to make a home in another country. In most instances, they seek a better life with more opportunities—education or work—for themselves and their children. Because this is a planned choice, the individual or family is more likely to have saved funds, explored locations and jobs, and brought some necessary personal possessions. They may even have a network of family and friends who previously immigrated who are ready to assist them as they settle in a new country.

What is a refugee? Forced to leave their birth country, these individuals and families fear for their safety. In some cases, they risk their lives to escape a horrific situation such as torture, war, starvation, or violation of their human rights. Often they flee without much notice and leave behind almost all their possessions. Before arriving in a new country, they may spend time in an intermediary country or a refugee camp, waiting for legal clearance to resettle in a host country. Refugees typically cannot return to their home country unless political and economic circumstances change dramatically. Recent crises provide a window into conflicts worldwide that have forced people to leave for a safe haven. The United States admitted 85,000 refugees in 2016 with the largest numbers coming from six countries: the Democratic Republic of Congo, Syria, Burma (Myanmar), Iraq, Somalia, and Bhutan.<sup>2</sup>

What is a migrant? People who seek work or educational opportunities for a limited amount of time are free to come and go between their home country and host country. Migrants include agricultural workers, students, educators, health care professionals, and a variety of other occupational groups.

For each category of immigrant, specific legal requirements and protections are in place. Confusing the groups takes attention away from the needs of these individuals and families. For example, international law defines “refugee” and spells out how they are to be protected. One

“DON'T FEEL BAD, LOU...
YOU'RE NOT THE ONLY ONE WHO THOUGHT EATING
LASAGNA AT THE CHURCH LUNCHEON MADE US MULTICULTURAL.”

Eastern Washington-Idaho Synod's purchase of a subscription to The Parish Paper INCLUDES permission for each congregation within our jurisdiction to (a) photocopy or electronically distribute for local use as many copies as it needs, (b) post them on its website, and (c) quote sentences and paragraphs.

of the most crucial principles of international law is that refugees cannot be removed from the country providing asylum or returned to situations that might threaten their life. The appropriate legal response always depends on the individual's immigration status.<sup>3</sup> Obtaining and processing the proper documents for legal status within the US is complicated, prolonged, and often expensive.

Will We Choose Welcome?

Whether an individual or group of church members wants to reach out to immigrants, they must do so with plenty of background information. Do we know the country of origin for immigrants currently in our community? What do we have to offer as a faith community?<sup>4</sup> Do we see ourselves as allies rather than the ones in charge? Are we paying attention to who is asking for what? Can we listen to newcomers' stories about their background and journey without pre-judgment? Can we learn about their dreams?

First, learn about local immigrant groups and existing non-profit organizations. Use "immigrant and refugee ministries" as search terms to discover services and agencies already assisting in your area (see <http://www.americanacc.org>). Search your judicatory and denominational websites for information and updates (e.g., <http://oga.pcusa.org/section/mid-council-ministries/immigration/>). Check out these additional resources:

- For worship resources: Church World Service founded by 17 denominations (<https://cwsglobal.org/our-work/refugees-and-immigrants/>)
- For ideas about how churches can help immigrant neighbors and fellow churchgoers: The Matthew 25 Movement (<http://matthew25pledge.com/toolkit/immigration>)
- For information about defending immigrant rights: American Friends Service Committee (<https://www.afsc.org/key-issues/issue/defending-immigrant-rights>)

- For access to finding assistance organizations near you: Catholic Charities USA (<https://catholiccharitiesusa.org/find-help>)
- For locating local legal assistance: Immigration Law Help (<https://www.immigrationlawhelp.org/>)

Second, let what you learn lead you to discern the next steps for yourself or the congregation. Most communities already have organizations with decades of experience assisting immigrants. Consider volunteering with or donating to a reputable local or national group. Local agencies often need help with job networking, tutoring children or adults, or basic items (shelter, food, and clothing) in the early months of resettlement. Legislative advocacy and local organizing efforts are additional options for supporting immigrant rights. Recognize that some assistance comes with zero risk for the volunteer or organization. However, the degree of risk falls along a continuum from no legal risks to possible violation of US law (such as providing sanctuary to undocumented immigrants, refugees, and unskilled workers with temporary visas).<sup>5</sup> Whatever actions you or others might take, should be done with eyes wide open.

Third, assess the opportunities or barriers for your congregation to be more multicultural. Many churches are already worshiping communities composed of multiple cultural groups. Unfortunately, the tendency is for the largest or dominant cultural group to believe that the minority cultures should give up their unique cultural identities and practices once they become part of the congregation. Finding points of commonality, such as children's education, support for families, or shared experiences in ministry with Christians in a sister church in another country, increases the chances of a congregation becoming more multicultural over time.<sup>6</sup>

From Africa to America

An African proverb says: "If you want to go fast, walk alone. If you want to go far, walk together." Responding to the complexity of immigrants' needs requires many, many caring partners and a long-term commitment.
