There's an app for that!

These days, there's a smartphone app for just about everything. But what about spiritual concerns? Where can you turn?

- Depressed? Try the joy app. Read Isaiah 51:11.
- Tired? Try the renewal app. Read Isaiah 40:30-31.
- Unsettled? Try the peace app. Read Philippians 4:7.
- Unloved? Try the love app. Read Romans 8:38-39.
- Worried? Try the refuge app. Read Psalm 46:1.
- Fearful? Try the power app. Read 2 Timothy 1:7.
- Guilty? Try the forgiveness app. Read Colossians 1:13-14.
- Praying? Try the prayer app. Read 1 John 5:14-15.

The Scriptures are God's storehouse of meaningful applications for what we face every day. Think of the Bible as the iTunes Store of spiritual apps. Best of all, everything's free!

From Pastor's Desk...

God's Beloved People,

"PRAY WITHOUT CEASING" / 1 Thess 5:16

We need to give a great big round of applause to our Church Council. They are a remarkable group with wonderful ministry gifts that have given and given and given of their time, talents, and treasure.

As we journey into this New Year together let us "pray without ceasing" as 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 says, "Rejoice always; pray without ceasing. In everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

We are Christians, we all pray, right? Everybody who is a Christian practices the reflective meditation of the prayerful life, correct? According to Jesus, by far the most important thing about praying is to keep at it. The images he uses to explain this are rather comical, as though he thought it was rather comic to have to explain prayer to Jews at all. He says God is like a friend you go borrow bread from at midnight. The friend tells you in effect to drop dead, but you go on knocking anyway until he finally gives you what you want so he can go back to bed again. (Luke 11:5-8) God wants us to beat a path to his door because until we do, this may be the only way of getting to and understanding our own door. To ask, knock, and seek is a means of understanding self, life, and mission.

I call on each of us to pray for our congregation, council leadership, God's mission through ELC and our staff. Through our praying we are encouraged, heartened, supported, held, and have our direction clarified...in God's way, forward. According to Jesus, this is the most important thing we can do for each other.

So keep at it! Pray without ceasing! Allow me to repeat this; as we journey into this New Year together let us "pray without ceasing"...keep at it. As we beat a path to God's door, we do this because it is the only way of getting to and understanding our own door.

Getting to KNOW:

Swaanie Schwarzlander

What an exciting and special time for our new members, Swaantje (Swaanie) Schwarzlander and her family!

In August, the Schwarzlander's traveled to Giekau in northern Germany for Swaanie's baptism on Sunday, August 31, 2014!

See below what was shared by the Schwarzlander's about this fantastic trip.
Thank you, Mark, Majijika, and Swannie, for including us in this special event!

The church in Giekau and Swaanie in front of the altar sensing that this service is all about her.

The church in Giekau is named after the apostle and evangelist Johannes (John). It is one of the churches founded by Graf Adolf IV of Schaumburg after his victory over the Danes at Bornhöved in 1227. Construction is believed to have been completed by 1240, and the church was first mentioned in a register in 1259. The old tower was replaced in 1811-12 with the current one, which is 105 feet tall. It houses 2 bells, a large one cast in 1616 in the Northern Sea port town of Husum. The smaller bell is a replacement for an older one and was cast in 1974. There is also an hour bell, which was made from a bomb shell dropped nearby by the church at the end of WWII. The wooden gothic altar is dating back to the year 1500. The baptismal stand dates from 1781.

The main reason, why we chose this church and its congregation (serving a population of about 3,000 in 18 surrounding villages) is that it is the congregation of Mark's mother and her ancestors. Mark's grandma was baptized and married in this church and she is resting in the graveyard right behind the church, as are his great-grandparents. His mom was baptized and married in this church, as was his sister. So in many regards that has been for generations the 'family' church. Pastor Günther Suckow was excited about the idea of the baptism, and it took place on Sunday, August 31, 2014.

The baptism family with godfather and godmother in front of the altar.

Swaanies baptism verse is:
*"Dear children, let us not love with words or speech
but with actions and in truth."*
-1 John 3:18 (NIV)

Every baptized child is honored with a paper dove hanging on top of the baptismal stand.

The Easter Monday in the year following the baptism, the doves are handed to the children.

Uniquely PALOUSE

A MAGAZINE FOR THOSE WHO ENJOY THE PALOUSE LIFESTYLE

a passion for COMPASSION

By Bonnie Kirkwood

A PASSION FOR COMPASSION

Pastor David Daugs believes in making a difference, one person at a time.

PASTOR DAVID DAUGS BELIEVES IN MAKING A DIFFERENCE, ONE PERSON AT A TIME.

PALOUSEPROFILE

David Daugs loves to tease. When his next-door neighbor's Ford Explorer was having some alignment issues, he couldn't resist telling a mutual friend, "Britta's having some rear end problems." They also have an ongoing debate about whether it's better to be German or Swedish. That's just the kind of guy he is.

But around Moscow, he's known for more than jokes and a little back-and-forth fun with his friends. He's been a pastor for 29 years, and as the senior pastor at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, he makes a difference in peoples' lives every single day.

In addition to his duties at church services, David's vocation takes him to people's homes, charities, hospitals, and wherever else he might be needed. "I hear their stories, how they connect to the community, their interests and avocations," David says.

The power of witnessing in people's lives guides David's practice. He listens, and then invites people back into a community of faith.

Drawn to the community

As it turns out, David and his wife, Kris, already think Moscow has a great sense of community. They arrived two years ago after David expressed interest in an opportunity to pastor here. After a number of years serving in more rural areas, he was excited about the chance to be in an environment that had so much support for education, including higher academic standards and two nearby colleges, and the added culture that those institutions bring to a town. His wife, a math teacher for 20 years, also looked forward to working in a place with so much community participation.

The couple has three children of their own, all grown – two live in Phoenix, one lives in Pasco. David's pastoring role is a full-time job, and Kris teaches 7th and 8th grade math at Moscow middle school. "She spends her day with all those 13-year-olds, and then comes home and has to deal with me," he says with a smile.

The power of compassion

Around his neighborhood, David is known for mowing neighbors' lawns, letting people borrow his tools, and caretaking the community property whenever it needs attention. "I believe we can all make a difference right where we are," he says. And he practices what he preaches.

What makes his livelihood and calling most meaningful are the moments when he can truly be present for those going through major life-passage events.

"Just this week we had a stillbirth, two new babies, and an elderly man who is waiting for a lung transplant and may not get it," he reflects, compassion evident in his voice. "To go from that depth of grief to that joy, and finding patience and understanding, is what this is all about."

"TO GO FROM THAT DEPTH OF GRIEF TO THAT JOY, AND FINDING PATIENCE AND UNDERSTANDING IS WHAT THIS IS ALL ABOUT," DAVID SAYS.

While many of David's practices might seem natural for a pastor, he also believes that every person has the power to make the world a better place, just by how they respond to others.

"I encourage people to practice gentleness, kindness, and patience, whoever they are," David says. "And anybody can do that. Many people who aren't Christians do it very well. And if we all do that, imagine what a wonderful community we'd have."

Emmanuel Lutheran Preschool News!

The firefighters came to school to teach the children about fire safety. Father and son, Joe and Scott Williams were the firemen who visited. Fireman Scott told us coming to talk at schools is his favorite thing to do and he is great with the children. One little boy started the day in tears feeling scared just thinking about fires, and ended the day being the first to volunteer to wear the fire fighter's gear. It's great to see those positive transitions.

In addition to safety, the four-year-old classes learned about colors and people at work. The dramatic play area was converted to a carpenters shop and a beauty shop. The children have most enjoyed hammering tees into Styrofoam blocks. Their field trip was to the Moscow Food Co-op where they learned about a variety of jobs including bakers, dish washers, baristas, shelf stockers, meat cutters, office workers, cashiers and produce workers.

The three-year-old classes enjoyed orange day and learning about apples. They read apple books, did apple printing and went on a field trip to the WSU apple orchards. While visiting the orchards they saw the huge refrigerated building, heard about what helps apples grow, and picked apples to bring home.

All the children rehearsed songs for Preschool Sunday and the ones who were able to came to church to sing. Some families stayed for the fun pumpkin carving after the service. The congregation always offers a warm welcome to the preschool families.

We avoid the negative aspects of Halloween, but still have some fun with the season. The children learn about pumpkins and bats and they enjoy wearing costumes to school the end of October.

Happy Fall,
Terri & Marnie

Preschool is SO FUN!

- Acrylic paints
- Paint brush

Pastor's Discretionary Fund

The Pastor's Discretionary Fund is used by the Pastor to assist individuals and families that are in need. Most often it is used to assist people who stop by the church office and request assistance for basic needs. Community organizations may also refer to Pastor, persons who need assistance. Pastor investigates each case by checking in with the Sheriff's Office and or Latah County Social Services both of which share a common data base that can spot repeating requests and persons to keep an eye on. These requests to the Pastor's Discretionary fund may be:

- ◆ They are homeless and need a place to stay for a night or two. The fund can provide temporary hotel housing for up to 3 nights while other arrangements are being made. Pastor will assist these people in connecting with local resources. Most people may receive housing assistance up to 2 times per year, however circumstances and situations may direct more assistance...especially when there are children involved.

- ◆ They may need assistance with utilities that are about to be denied. Pastor calls the utility provider and helps to set up a payment plan that includes an initial payment from the Discretionary Fund.
- ◆ They are traveling through town and need gasoline or vehicle repairs so they can continue to their destination. Their personal resources are depleted. Pastor assists them in purchasing fuel or finding a mechanic who can repair their vehicle for a reasonable rate.
- ◆ People need to see a doctor or need medicine. Pastor uses the Moscow Clinic to provide these services. They may need a prescription filled and this is done through Rosauers Pharmacy.
- ◆ People may need food. They are connected with our local food bank and/or food is given from our ELC kitchen surplus or is purchased by

- ◆ Preschool families sometimes need assistance with, rent, utilities, food, medicine, clothing or tuition.

ELC has the gracious ministry of "loaves and fishes," assisting people with their most basic needs. This is a very "hands on" ministry through our Pastor. The Pastor's Discretionary Fund is in need of your financial support. Could your support for the Pastor's Discretionary Fund be above and beyond your usual gracious giving? If you are able to, please give a separate offering ear marked for the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.

(Our Church Treasurer and our Pastor administrate the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.)

Treasurer's Report

SEPTEMBER FINANCIAL REPORT

Income and expenses this year need to average about $26,200 per month to meet budget. Income for the general fund in September totaled about $24,200, and expenses paid during the month were about $32,500. September payments are often high due to late arrival of summer bills, plus extra orders for materials needed during the closing months of the calendar year. The general fund deficit for the year-to-date is now about $10,300. Expenses paid for the year-to-date are slightly below budget. With 75% of the year behind us (nine months), we have spent about 73% of the annual budget.

WHAT WE OWE: The balance owed on our line of credit to Wells Fargo Bank is now about $13,500. Interest charged for the past month at 5.75% was about $63.

THANKS: We thank all of you for your participation, enthusiasm and generous support for Emmanuel's life and missions!

Touring London and the Tower Bridge with fellow YAGMs

Chaperoning the Thorpe Park trip with other gap assistants

A Victorian garden I visited in Bournemouth

Every single day of the last two months (presumably the coming 9) packs challenge and joy and peace in its own way. Whether its discussing gospel symbols with confirmation students, treasure hunting with Bible Club (and convincing them the treasure really is in their hearts), or giggling with High House girls while we watch "The Great British Bake-Off".

Sometimes I'm just exhausted and sometimes I find myself basically frolicking through the butterfly preserve across the street from school. This place feels like home. God has found me a cozy corner of foggy England where we can get to know each other better.

THANKS

I made it! Months of interviewing, planning, and gathering support culminated in the successful launch of myself and 64 other young adults into a year of global mission.

Thank you for your kindness and contributions as I wildly prepared for this journey. I'm so, so pleased to announce that the contributions of congregations and individuals came to a total of $5,986!!

You all are incredible. I feel the love. It's reaching across continents and oceans. God likes it and so do I.

ARRIVAL

The five London-bound YAGMs landed in Heathrow at 8:35 a.m. on August 21st. We made it through customs and baggage claim (where I filed a report for my lost bag) and found Chrissie, a Time for God worker who guided us through our first train journey. By the time we arrived at the Guy Chester Centre I had no idea what time it was. Chrissie answered our dumb questions and advised us to stay awake as long as possible that day. So, naturally I fell asleep at about 4:30 p.m., woke up briefly for dinner and snoozed until the next morning.

For the next six days, we explored the big (free) sights of central London. We spent a memorably wet day at the Notting Hill Carnival and a pleasant afternoon at a local palace-slash-park. We rode more double-decker buses than I can count, and we got lost quite often.

Approaching the British Museum

We sprung for a flight on the London Eye on our last days and managed to catch it right at dusk. We saw all the lights come on while we were right near the top. Pretty stinking cool.

ST. SWITHUN'S

The train pulled into Winchester and I lugged my bags through one last gate into the waiting arms of Rev. Katrina Dykes. Unpacking and putting those suitcases away was wonderful. My room in High House had been stocked with magazines, travel guides, and a lovely orchid (which is still thriving). The 40 High House girls arrived over the next few days, and then classes began.

I'm officially the Chaplain's Assistant and a Gap Assistant in High House. I spend most of the school day with Katrina and most mornings and evenings in High House. I help plan and carry out Christian Union, confirmation, boarders' chapel, a junior school assembly, and junior school Bible Club each week. Each Monday I'm in charge of waking up the house, Wednesday and Thursday evenings we have a tutor helping out, and I'm on duty every other weekend leading and chaperoning activities with boarders from all houses and ages.

UPDATE FROM Vicky!

This country is packed with super interesting churches — great giant ones, crazy-old ones, teeny tiny ones. I've found an adorable one in Winchester called St. Lawrence to attend Sunday mornings. So far, I've been in three cathedrals — and three times in Winchester Cathedral.

Above, spending some time with the local surf and sand in Bournemouth. I also ate "world famous" fish n' chips. Below, visiting the Borough Market with Paige (another YAGM) and Leijla (a Time for God volunteer from Hungary).

Swimming in the Atlantic was the highlight of my first weekend off. I took a train to the southern coast and spent a day in Bournemouth. More recently, I visited a couple of volunteers in London and we went on a tour of hidden alleyways.

Time for God hosted a conference in Hertfordshire (pronounced hurt-furd-shur) with about 20 volunteers from all over the world. Then, St. Swithun's sent me to London for a one-day training with the Boarding School Association.

I saw the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby (left) ordain a new bishop of Basingstoke in Winchester Cathedral

High Leigh Conference Center, where the Tfg Preparation for Service Conference was held. It's completely gorgeous.

I've seen nearly every movie with Hugh Grant or Colin Firth, and the first two seasons of "The Vicar of Dibley." I've read Anne of Avonlea, Black Like Me, The Glass Castle, and now I'm working on Love Wins and A Sand County Almanac. I've been listening to folky hymns and podcasts of This American Life.

Lutherhaven Values

Jesus is the foundation of all our being, activities, events, programs, and opportunities to embody His love;

Faith Formation rooted in the Lutheran tradition, sharing God's love in ways relevant in our world right now;

People, all called into a safe, joy-filled, nurturing faith community;

Relationships built on Jesus' love as we partner with people, congregations, communities and organizations;

Service as a way we extend the breadth and depth of God's love through hospitality, outreach, and leadership-centered programs;

Caring for God-given gifts and resources The Outdoors, cared for, appreciated and explored;

Abundant Life, filled with recreation, laughter, and play;

God's Word as the living, active means by which God calls us to faith and forms us as God's people.

About Lutherhaven

Since 1946 when Camp Lutherhaven on Coeur d'Alene opened and held its first Bible Camp, Lutherhaven Ministries has been providing quality, safe, Christ-centered camp for all ages!

Millions of kids go to sleep-away camp each summer, continuing a tradition that's been a round for generations of American children. Every year nearly 4,000 children and youth from across the region and around the nation have a Lutherhaven summer!

Lutherhaven believes kids need:

- Time to unplug with fun, safe programs, outdoor recreation, games and activities
- Opportunities to develop life values and appropriate risk-taking with significant, trained adult mentors and like-minded peers
- Chances to form and grow "sticky" faith they'll carry with them into adulthood.

David Lee Isakson

July 30, 1944—May 12, 2001

Many things can be said about Dave. Those who knew him will remember him as kind, good-hearted, reliable, methodical, diligent and encouraging. He was a man of unwavering integrity whose word was his bond. He valued the same in others.

Most of all, he was a devoted Christian who not only talked the talk but walked the walk. He modeled his Christian values at work, at home and as a husband, son, father, brother, friend and neighbor. Few people give themselves as generously and willingly as Dave did.

The hope is for the children of our community to have the opportunity to grow in values and faith through the ministry of Lutherhaven. Just as Dave would want it.
