Our Fabulous Fellowship Facility

With the fall upon us, and school about to begin, this is the time when Emmanuel really starts hopping! We have such a wonderful area (our Fellowship Hall) for learning, playing, living, and loving our Lord. But alas, with everything comes guidelines (rules). Please refresh your memory on the guidelines for use of our fabulous fellowship facility:

Here is the "Regular" Set-Up for the Fellowship Hall tables.

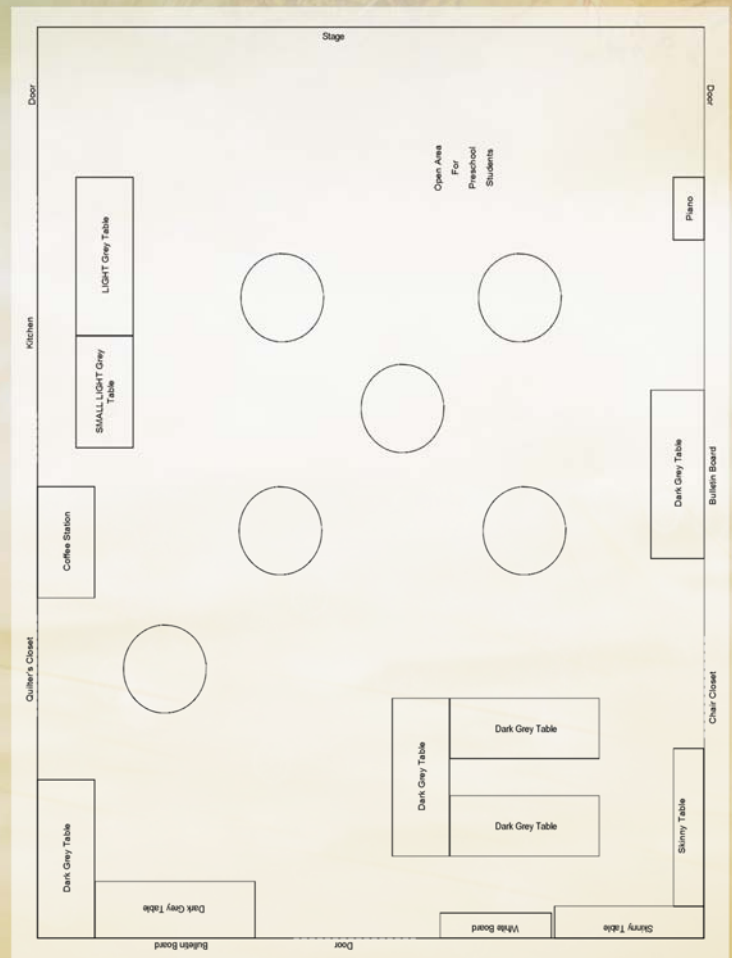

Please use the Fellowship Hall as it is available, and feel free to move things around as needed.

When you are finished, before you leave the building, please return tables back to this posted configuration.

(You will find this diagram posted on every wall in the Hall. Table placement is not exact, but please try and be as close as possible to the diagram.)

If you find that this table set-up is not working for any reason, or you have ideas you wish to have taken into consideration, please contact CindyMarie in the Church Office. She will communicate your suggestions and concerns to the appropriate people.

Thank you!

Sunday's Scripture Segments

Scripture readings for Sunday,
August 30, 2015

The Fourteenth Sunday
after Pentecost:

Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-9

The Israelites believed the law was a divine gift that provided guidelines for living out the covenant. Moses commands the people to obey the law and neither to add to nor subtract from it. The Israelites are also to teach the law to their children and their children's children.

James 1:17-27

The letter of James was intended to provide first-century Christians with instruction in godly behavior.

Here, Christians are encouraged to listen carefully and to act on what they hear, especially by caring for those least able to care for themselves.

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Mark's gospel depicts Jesus as challenging traditional ways in which religious people determine what is pure or impure. For Jesus, the observance of religious practices cannot become a substitute for godly words or deeds that spring from a faithful heart.

Sermon Title:

"It is not a pretty picture."

Pastor Dave Daugs

The Dramatic Challenge of Mark's Gospel.

Mark's is the shortest of the gospels and probably the first to have been written down. Recent evidence suggests that it was originally intended as a script for dramatic, oral, live performance. We now have a wonderful one-man dramatic presentation of this whole gospel by award-winning actor Max McLean, who brings Mark to life with electrifying energy, giving us a sense of what its first hearers might have experienced.

(Anyone interested in having a quick look can simply search his name on YouTube.) In this series, led by Dr. Kurt Queller, we'll use McLean's performance as a springboard for investigating this amazing text as a single, self-contained, coherent narrative. Our focus will be on the many fascinating ways in which Mark's dramatic storytelling teases us and challenges us.

Join us! 8:30 AM, in the Fellowship Hall.

SPEECH DAY & VALEDICTORY

Every school has a distinct set of year-end traditions and ceremonies. St Swithun's is not without its own. The last week of school was a downhill whirlwind of house outings, packing up, festivals, and final farewells.

On the last morning everyone assembled in a giant white tent outside the boarding houses for award presentations by administrators and speeches from the Head Girls. Their words were inspiring and sweet as they reflected on the opportunities St Swithun's had led them to discover.

After lunch the girls and staff walked into town for valedictory service in the cathedral. Many parents and families attended, Rev. Dykes shared a message about journeys, and some of the girls' favourite hymns echoed off the stone walls. I can't think of a more beautiful way to close the school year.

Rev. Dykes started a tradition of giving roses to all leaving students and staff at valedictory service in Winchester cathedral.

LAST DAYS IN ENGLAND

After the close of school I spent a week visiting some yet-to-be seen sights with my friend Hannah, while also saying goodbye to UK friends.

We made sure to experience a variety of pubs, castles, and gardens — the like of which are not to be found outside the UK. It was such a gift to have a close friend by my side during those days of transition and travel.

From left, peeking into private gardens at Hampton Court Palace with Katrina and Karen, seeing the London sights with Hannah, and afternoon tea at the Pump Rooms in Bath.

CLIFF COLLEGE & TFG REGIONAL DAY

During June I attended two wrap-up events — one with Time for God volunteers from the London area, and one for Cliff College's graduation ceremony.

The TFG day provided space for reflection and sharing. It was a helpful nudge toward solidifying stories and mapping the year in retrospect.

The few days at Cliff College was the last time our group of UK YAGMs got together as a complete cohort. I have grown to really love every one of them. And it was so bittersweet to close the year as a team, then say our see-you-laters.

There are many more formal photos from Cliff College, but this is still my favorite.

MOTTISFONT & CASCADES

I've always liked flowers. I've never had so much opportunity to gawk at them as I did this June. First, I spent the better part of a day with a friend and colleague named Tansley at a nearby National Trust property. We explored every corner of the walled and winding rose gardens. Blooms were everywhere — it was like a fairytale.

Then Katrina made good on her birthday present to me with tickets to Cascades, a flower show in Winchester Cathedral. Garden clubs from the region design living installations that are no short of art. Many of them linked to specific features of the building or its history. I couldn't take enough pictures to capture it.

Katrina and I in the choir beside one of the arrangements.

Where I've Been

Here's a handy map showing the counties I've visited. It's even color-coded to give you an idea of how much time I spent where — from lightest (traveled through) to darkest (stayed a week or more), with the ones in between representing day trips or weekend visits.

Posh Digs

I took pictures of windows at a variety of ruins throughout the year. Here's a collection of them from my travels.

In June I read The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime, The Kitchen God's Wife, and started The Grass is Singing. I watched The Avengers on the airplane home, and have been working toward catching up on Game of Thrones. Upon returning to the US, I've picked up a couple of memoirs (I Love Everybody and Adulting). Next on my reading list are Americanah, The Poisonwood Bible, and something by Sherman Alexie.

Emmanuel's Communication Modes are Many!

Servants at ELC try very hard to communicate to our members, Moscow, Idaho, and beyond, of all our activities that are held in support of our mission and ministries here. There is a "flavor" for EVERYONE!

- Digitally communicated via our website with URLs and QR codes (See an explanation below 😊)
- Posted on our Facebook page
- Weekly Newsletters which are posted on our website, mailed, or emailed per your requested preference
- Personal announcements on Sunday's at worship
- Posters, flyers, and bulletin board displays around the church building
- Advertisements in the newspaper
- Personal telephone calls

*Which "flavor" are you?
Let us know if we can help
in any way to get you connected to the communication style that best fits you!*

What Are All These Boxes About?

These crazy boxes are a mode of communication my friend! I consider myself a savvy, in the now, hip kinda gal... but I had to look up what a QR code and a URL actually was. 😊

Here is what I found on Wikipedia,
(the "Encyclopedia on the internet):

A uniform resource locator (abbreviated URL; also known as a web address, particularly when used with HTTP) is a specific character string that constitutes a reference to a resource.

Most web browsers display the URL of a web page above the page in an address bar.

QR code (abbreviated from Quick Response Code) is the trademark for a type of two-dimensional barcode (the crazy boxes). Originally designed for industrial uses, QR codes have become common in consumer advertising. Typically, a smartphone is used as a QR code scanner, displaying the code and converting it to some useful form (such as a standard URL for a website, thereby obviating the need for a user to type it into a web browser). The QR code has become a focus of advertising strategy, since it provides a way to access a brand's website more quickly than by manually entering a URL.

So Now You Know! 😊

Servant SCOPE

What would YOU like to do?

Here's an idea! Make a positive impact on the Sunday experience of all who enter here!

Serve as a FELLOWSHIP HOST!

In Scripture, many great encounters between people and God happen around food. Abraham and Sarah prepare a meal for three guests who turn out to be angels (Genesis 18). God instructs the Hebrew slaves to eat a special meal together before their delivery from Egypt (Exodus 12); every year since, Jews have celebrated the Passover feast. Elijah is strengthened with food served by an angel (1 Kings 19). Jesus shares meals not only with religious leaders but with "sinners" (e.g., Matthew 9). Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples before his death has become one of the church's sacraments and a "foretaste" of the heavenly banquet to come.

When Christian families eat together, it's a holy time in God's presence, just as when the church shares Holy Communion — a true fellowship dinner!

Each Emmanuel family helps out with Sunday Morning Fellowship Privileges on a rotating basis once every few months. A letter with the schedule and instructions is sent to each family as well as a reminder postcard sent a few days before your scheduled Sunday.

If you have not been asked to serve yet, or if you had previously asked to be removed from the rotation but would like to again serve, please let us know.

Help ME Change the World

Every Sunday this summer Mission Endowment (ME) will be helping to collect items for baby, hygiene, and school kits.

We need your help!

One week, one item at a time, we will Change the World!

August is Collection for School and Health Kits

- August 30: New ballpoint pens (no gel ink), boxes of 16 or 24 crayons

Our Passion for Compassion will Change the World!

MISSION ENDOWMENT GIVES AWAY MONEY from the Endowment every year!

That's right, we do!! And we need your help to make that happen. Look for the request form in the Church narthex or on the website, fill it out and return it to the Church office by the due date (October 11). Then plan to attend the All Saint's Potluck (November 1) where you will describe your project (in 2 minutes or less) and vie for votes. Having trouble deciding which non-profit we should support? Look at the ELCA website for ideas. We solicit requests for local, regional, and international groups.
