

Why Orange?

Why Orange? Yellow is like the light. The church is called to be a light in the world. Red is like the heart and the warmth of the home – families. Yellow and red make orange. We will be much more successful in raising up the present generation of children if parents and the church combine their efforts. Why are parents so important? Can't the church take care of all the spiritual discipleship of children? The average church can impact a child about 40 hours a year. Parents, however, have about 3,000 hours a year to influence their children. And, these 3,000 hours do not include school time or sleep time! We want to leverage this tremendous amount of time that parents have with their children. We want to equip parents to be spiritual leaders of their children.

I (Pastor Pete) have worked with children at MCC for over 20 years and before that I taught in public schools. I have come to the place where I realize that I cannot prepare children to walk in the fullness of their destinies without a partnership with parents. Together we can equip, empower, and release your children to overcome in the End Times. I believe that our children will see the return of Christ and be instrumental in gathering in the largest harvest of souls in history. I believe they will walk in God's power and presence in ways previous generations could only imagine. But, I also believe during the next few decades they will face the greatest attacks of the enemy. To overcome in the End Times, children must learn who they are in Christ. They must grow in intimacy with God and learn to hear His voice. They must know the Word. And, they must also learn to take authority over the enemy and exercise their faith.

Many parents in our church do not feel qualified to be spiritual leaders of their children. Some are even embarrassed at the lack of their own training. That's why we have Orange. I am here to love your children and minister to them, but I am also here to equip you in any way I can. You are my priority. Please do not hesitate to call me. Set up an appointment to see me anytime you want. Feel free to drop in and observe any ministry. Together we can make your children mighty for God.
