"Ministering in Word & Song"

August 2012

Dear Friend,

What a pleasure it is to write to you and call you friends! We have just come out of the season of our first camp meeting and WE HAVE SURVIVED! As Terri and I have discussed the different details of the meetings we have come again and again to the same point: WHAT A BLESSING OUR PARTNERS ARE! You supported us financially before, during, and after. You prayed with and for us. Some of you traveled GREAT distances to be a part of what God was doing. Some of you even labored during the days of the meetings to make sure that it was all JUST PERFECT! We are so impressed with you and appreciate you SO much. If it had not been for you . . . well, we are not sure what the landscape of those meetings would have looked like. We know that we would have been MUCH further in the red than 800 dollars. We had a personal vision (or hope) that we would have banked enough capital to begin moving forward on next year's meetings so that we could possibly have one in Knoxville and another in an area of the country like Hershey Pennsylvania. But as much as I would like things to be a little easier, it seems like God would rather build faith in Terri and me by allowing a bit of a struggle. The good thing is that GOD ALWAYS COMES THROUGH! And it's amazing how He uses people just like YOU!

One of the most amazing things that happened during the meetings was how the Spirit broke in on us on Saturday night. We were having good services but the attendance was not what we had hoped for and it left me having to pray through to the place I needed to be to minister properly. On that Saturday night I told the Worship team to have fun and turn loose. And they did! The people began to dance, run, shout, and sing. There was a freedom that allowed the kind of preaching that I like to do. There was a young couple there in the hardest time of their lives. It was affecting their marriage harshly and there are two little toddlers involved. Both husband and wife were GLORIOUSLY saved that night and I could not help but thank God that we had decided to have those meetings. Those two little children will have a life with a chance for heaven now because Mommy and Daddy came to Jesus. YOU have a BIG part of that miracle. I have written story after story about people that have had physical healings and miracles in our services but to be perfectly candid, there is absolutely nothing in the world like the miracle of salvation! I would rather see people's lives changed forever than to see any other kind of miracle EVER! Thank God I do not have to make that choice because God is big enough to do BOTH!

Thank you so much for your support and for all that you do to be a part of what God is doing in the earth! We pray God's richest blessing on you, your loved ones, your body, and your every endeavor! May you prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers!

We love you dearly,
Carl, Terri, and Lilly
