

Submission Guidelines

It is the goal of Ladybug Women's Ministries to provide readers with topics relevant to a woman's heart. Our newsletter is published quarterly, featuring a wide range of subject matter, all written from a Christian perspective.

We welcome article submissions of 800 words or less, and will consider any article for inclusion in the current newsletter, provided that the following guidelines are met:

1. All articles must be original intellectual property, with no violation of "first rights" or "exclusive rights" with another publication.
2. Articles must be Biblically sound and should be written in the tone of our organization's mission statement. Read our previous newsletters and familiarize yourself with our organization to understand this tone.
3. Submissions will be accepted on any variety of subjects, but LWM is primarily interested in the following :

- A Woman's Relationship with Christ
- Attitude and Matters of the Heart
- Home and Family Issues
- Coping with Chronic Illness
- Conflict
- Friendship
- Marriage
- Divorce and Blended Families
- Single Women
- Seasonal Articles
- Stress & Emotional Issues
- Testimony Articles
- Workplace/Professional Issues

Please understand that acceptance of your submission does not guarantee publication. LWM reserves the right to edit any submission for clarity and space. Please allow ninety days for a response to your submission. We regret that we are not able to offer compensation for any published submission.
