Meet our special guest
CEO Valerie Cunningham

Valarie has a Master's Degree in Social Work from Western Michigan University and an undergraduate degree in Business Administration also from Western Michigan University. She has over 15 years of experience in the Behavioral Health field. Over 12 years ago, her desire to see change and transformation was her driving force to birth GFM The Synergy Center. She saw a need to provide culturally sensitive, relevant programs within hard to reach areas and services in the community she serves. Valarie's love and compassion to see those in hurting helped and healed led her to continue to expand programs and services that extend beyond the borders of Kalamazoo. When available to counsel her specialty area is Faith Based Counseling, Marriage and Couples counselling especially to those in leadership (pastors, and leadership team members), adults and teenagers.

Dante Gilliam, Director of Operation, KEYES

There is great power in our thoughts. As entrepreneurs and business leaders we must remember that a thought has the potential to turn into a business opportunity or the strategy to take you to the next level in providing solutions. If there is no stewardship to your thoughts, then they just become a good idea which is a mental impression that gets entertained in your mind. An idea not put into action is like a dream because a person with that idea is not fully aware of the potential and power of that idea. A thought or an idea written down has the potential to become a plan.

A plan is roadmap and when worked out has the capability to manifest into a booming business opportunity or even a ministry that transforms your community. The work and time you put the plan of your idea is your investment. A person working a current plan may say, "I work hard all the time and there are not enough hours in the day to get everything done!" Let me ask you this, how much are you willing to invest in the thoughts that come to you? If you are investing, are you satisfied with your returns? As times our efforts may not turn out the way we envision, and we can get discouraged. Discouragement is a roadblock and can detour us from the plan we had for our idea which can cause that idea to return to a dreamlike state.

This is not the time to give up. This is the time to press pass any roadblocks. There is a community, an organization, or a family that is waiting on the thoughts in your mind to be the key of transformation for them. This is the time to pay the price of pushing pass your breaking point and decide what you are going to do with all those brilliant ideas.

As entrepreneurs and business leaders we much remember that the price we are willing to pay determines the results we will get. You may be at that point where you need help in pushing pass the dreamlike state of your ideas. Are you willing invest your time and thoughts wisely by seeking new methods and strategies to succeed? Connect with one of our business coaches as well as attending one our Strategic Empowerment Master Mind sessions to help facilitate the journey of transforming your thoughts to a business or a life changing solution.

STEWARDSHIP

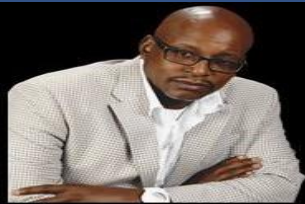

New Destiny International by Chanise L. Gilliam, Elder

This is the last quarter of 2018 and there are many things we are believing God for. We must remember that God is faithful to His word and to His covenant with us. We must do our part and the is stewardship. Stewardship is the careful and responsible management of something entrusted to one's care. A message on Stewardship was released in the house of New Destiny International (NDI) and it challenged us to expand our understanding of stewardship. 2 Peter 1:3 reminds us that through His divine power He has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness. So, we must be good stewards over the things that God has already given us. God, the creator of the universe, has invested Himself in us. We must give Him a return on His investment. We return his investment through stewardship. Lack of stewardship causes us not to receive what we desire from the Lord. At times it can be overwhelming as we take inventory of the things we must have stewardship over.

There are 2 areas that will bring transformation to our lives if they are properly stewarded. Stewarding our soul (mind, will and emotions) and relationships touches every part of our life. Remember stewardship is the careful and responsible management of something entrusted to one's care. Stewardship is management. Managing our thoughts, our will, our emotions, and our relationships is the key to manifesting God's word in our lives. The word of God instructs us to be transformed by the renewing of our minds (Romans 12:2). The Word of God is the plumb line of our stewardship. When it comes to our emotions we must not allow them to control us. When we manage our emotions, according to the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23), we produce wonderfully positive emotions and inner qualities. Aligning our will to God's will and original intent for us (Psalms 143:10) will bring blessings and favor to our lives. As we are stewards of our souls we are empowered to be stewards of our relationships. Whatever we put our hands to do it involves another person; our family, a leader, a colleague, a client; to name a few. As we are stewards over our relationships there are benefits that goes both ways. Valuing our relationships and managing them properly is a form of relationship capital. Being a good steward of our relationship brings great dividends that flows into many areas of our lives.

This is a just the surface of stewardship. At NDI we are currently on a journey of stewardship. We are discovering how critical it is for us to have stewardship over our lives and everything we are responsible for. This positions us to align ourselves with God's will and purpose for our lives and gives Him a return on His investment. I invite you to join us along the journey of transforming our lives and things we are connected to through stewardship. Please go to www.ATigney.Solutions for more information regarding our times of empowerment.
