

Duties of Christian Education

It shall be the purpose of this ministry to develop an effective program of religious education for the entire congregation in keeping with the general objectives of Christian education. It shall be responsible for:

- (a) Planning and administering the educational programs of the Church, including Church school, youth activities, midweek educational projects, leadership education, and distribution of Christian literature and fostering Christian home life.
- (b) Cooperating with other groups of the Church in planning educational programs.
- (c) Appointing a Church School Superintendent, Secretary, and other officers as necessary. These appointments are to be made by the Chairman of the Education Ministry.