

KING AVENUE PLAYERS PRESENT:

Written by L. Frank Baum
Music and Lyrics by Harold Arlen and E. Y. Harburg

The Wizard of Oz is presented by special arrangement from Tams Whitmark, Inc.

Directed by Jim Keller

Thursday, November 6, 7:30pm*

Friday, November 7, 7:30pm

Saturday, November 8, 7:30pm

Sunday, November 9, 2pm*

Childcare is available in the nursery.*

All performances are held in the sanctuary. Admission is free, but a free-will donation will be accepted. This show is appropriate for audiences all ages.

Adapted for stage from the classic 1939 MGM movie of the same name, this musical version tells the timeless story of Dorothy Gale, her dog Toto, and their adventures with munchkins, witches and a peculiar wizard far away from Kansas in the wonderful yet precarious Land of Oz.

The Wizard of Oz is presented by special arrangement from Tams-Whitmark, Inc. For more information about the show, the cast and King Avenue Players' production, visit <http://kingaveplayers.org>.

EARLY RISERS SERVICE TAKES A HIATUS

Our worship planning team as decided to suspend our 8am Early Risers' Service starting Sunday, December 28. It will resume on Easter, April 5. In essence the decision is to make it a seasonal service. Attendance peaked in July and August and has steadily declined in September and October. When the service began in March, an October assessment was planned. We look forward to continuing the service in April.

Our worship schedule will be as follows.

December 28, 2014 – March 29, 2015

Morning Blend	9am
Traditional Worship	11am

April 5, 2015 – December 20, 2015

SPECIAL ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS by John Keeny

Sunday, November 16
10am in the Chapel

Our church is privileged to host Charlotte Bonelli. She is the Head Archivist of the American Jewish Committee in New York. Ms Bonelli is the author of the acclaimed Exit Berlin and is in Columbus for a series of lectures and appearances at Ohio State, King Avenue, and Jewish organizations. Her visit is sponsored by the Melton Center for Jewish Studies, the Department of History at Ohio State, and King Avenue.

Exit Berlin is unique in that it presents the conversation between American and German Jews in the late 1930's and early 1940's as the situation in Germany deteriorates. Usually the American voices are not documented. It tells the true story of a young, immigrant Jewish woman's effort to save her extended family when she has essentially no resources in America.

On Sunday, November 16, at 10am, we shall hear her presentation at King Avenue on "The Importance of the Family during the Holocaust." Obviously this is a special opportunity for our church. Her book will be on sale in the milling area on November 9.

Also her lectures to the OSU "History of the Holocaust" class on Monday, November 17, at House 1 at the Gateway Theater, at 1:50-3:10pm; and at the Jewish Community Center, 1125 College Avenue 43209 at 7pm are open to the public.

MISSION: CHRISTMAS by Anna Guillozet

It is never too early to start thinking about your Christmas shopping! Join us in supporting the 2nd Annual Mission: Christmas at King Avenue. This alternative giving opportunity allows you to simplify your Christmas shopping while supporting King Avenue Missions. For example: Instead of buying your partner another tie, consider sponsoring 10 meals for the homeless at Gates Fourth Church. Catalogs will be available in November 23rd, and you can “shop” the mission market to make your selections on November 30, December 7, and December 14.

Giving Tuesday Match - Gifts made to the Casa de Misericordia partnership on the November 30th date will be submitted for matching through the UMC’s Advance “Giving Tuesday.” The Advance has allocated up to $1 million for matching funds. Double your impact for a great missional partnership!

DOUBLE YOUR IMPACT!

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2

Your gift to mission that is made online through the Advance on UMC #GivingTuesday will be matched dollar for dollar up to $1,000,000!

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP UPDATE by Colleen Ogle

Thirty individuals have begun to meet weekly with students at the Hubbard Mastery Elementary School to offer them reading practice and coaching as a result of the KAUMC-Hubbard School Partnership. Twenty-three people from KAUMC joined by seven OSU students volunteering through Circle K are meeting with a total of 53 students each week. It’s a great start! Reading Buddy Volunteers report that it is a highly rewarding experience. The children relish the one-on-one time and the school staff truly appreciates the community support for their work! We hope to continue to recruit additional Reading Buddies and substitute Reading Buddies throughout the year. If you are interested in becoming a Reading Buddy, contact Rev. Colleen Ogle (colleen@kingave.org) or Lois Dosky, Chair of the KAUMC-Hubbard Partnership (ldosky@att.net). It only takes one hour to become trained and there is a regular schedule of training sessions.

KING AVENUE PLAYERS by Max Moore

King Avenue Players, a theatrical ministry providing quality entertainment and community outreach since 2003, is seeking a director and music director for its Spring 2015 production of the musical Forever Plaid.

Show dates are March 26, 27 and 28, 2015. Auditions will be held on February 1 and 2. Rehearsals and the show will take place at King Avenue United Methodist Church, 299 King Ave., Columbus, OH 43201.

The primary director and music director will each be paid $300. Individuals with the requisite experience who wish to fill both roles will be paid $500. Interested parties may send a letter of interest, qualifications and/or C.V. of theatrical and music experience to King Avenue Players by email to kingavenueplayers@gmail.com, or by mail to our attention at the church's address above. Deadline for submissions is Friday, November 21.

For more information about Forever Plaid, visit the Music Theatre International site, www.mtishows.com. For more information about King Avenue Players, including an historical list of shows produced, visit kingaveplayers.org.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN by Marge Horrocks

It is with astonishment that I send this information!! Our fall rummage sale is now history and I'm so happy to announce that our proceeds are over $11,000. and the exact number is slowly rising. The weather seemed to have kept our crowd smaller, but the quality of our goods creates more spending!! We have our donations and donators to thank for that. How blest we are.

Our many heartfelt thanks go out to each and every person who helped us in our sales this year. YOU ARE SUPERB!!!!

Our proceeds go to our 2015 mission budget and the various mission projects we donate around the world and here in Columbus. On Thursday, November 13 at 6:30pm we shall clear our 2014 treasury and make these decisions. The meeting is open to any interested member or worker. Various requests for funds need to be submitted by the 10th.

by Judy Callander

Trans Movie Night will be held on Saturday, November 1 from 6-9pm at Columbus State in Delaware Hall. You may register online at www.thefrederickcenter.com/events.

Our Meet & Greet is on Sunday, November 2. Please stop by and say hi. Also, you will have the opportunity to write down your suggestions for future Spectrum events. We will have King Avenue shirts available for you to purchase. We have all youth sizes available ($10) and a limited selection of adult sizes ($15).

The Transgender Day of Remembrance will be held in King Avenue's Sanctuary on November 20 from 7-9pm. We had a "packed house" last year and those of us who attended were proud to welcome others into our beautiful place of worship. We were also humbled by the stories that were shared that evening. We hope that you will join us on November 20 as we represent Spectrum's ministry of hospitality.

Susan Keeny sends her gratitude to all of you who have helped with Spectrum luncheons so far this year. You have helped Susan prepare hundreds of wonderful meals and you have done so with the Spectrum spirit! Our next lunch is Sunday, December 28 at noon.

CAMPUS MINISTRY by Anna Guillozet

November Study

Join us Tuesdays at 6:30pm in the Logos Lounge for dinner and the study "Christmas is Not Your Birthday." This study draws heavily on Mike Slaughter's book of the same title, but also draws in other resources to guide us through prayer, study, and self-examination of how we can refocus our Christmas celebrating. This study is open to all college students! Dinner each week is free (and vegetarian options are always available).

Lecture

Join Pastor Anna and others from King Avenue in attending a lecture from award winning author (and King Avenue favorite) Rachel Held Evans. Held Evans will speak on November 7th at 7pm at Ohio Wesleyan University. The bus will leave from King Avenue promptly at 5:30pm. Please RSVP to anna@kingave.org by November 2nd. This event is free (although contributions for gas are welcome).

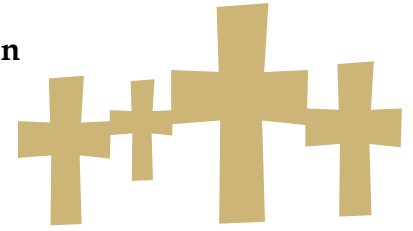

STONE VILLAGE CHURCH by John Wooden

November Gallery Hop

On Saturday, November 1 from 6 - 8 pm. Stone Village Art Gallery presents, Village Duets, an art exhibition by the German Village Art League. In addition to art, a delicious array of appetizers and desserts will be on hand.

On display at Stone Village on November 1.

Christmas Gifts for Those Living with HIV/AIDS

The community of Stone Village Church will be providing Christmas gifts for families and individuals living with HIV/AIDS during the holiday season. Those who feel called to help with this Christmas offering can provide a $25.00 gift card from Target. Gift cards should be received on or before Sunday, December 7th and can be dropped off to the King Avenue Church Office or placed in the offering plate.

Thanksgiving Eve Worship

On Wednesday, November 26th at 6:30 pm, we invite you to join us as we give thanks to God for all the blessings in our lives. The service of song, prayer and communion will be lead by Pastor John Wooden and members of SVC's worship team. In lieu of a monetary offering, we ask you to bring non-perishable goods to donate to The Columbus Open Shelter.
