Call to prayer

From Glenn Burris Jr. (Current president of Foursquare):

Everybody to their battle stations. All hands on deck. Continue to pray and labor with us.

- Pray against the spread of the virus.
- Pray for the divine healing of those affected.
- Pray for the church to find its voice in the midst of chaos and confusion.
- Pray for extraordinary finances and generosity during this crisis.
- Pray for the power of the Holy Spirit to empower witnesses throughout the world to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Prayer points from Foursquare President-Elect Randy Remington

Take a few moments to seek the Lord by reflecting and praying using these prayer points.

1. The key to living on a firm, unshakable foundation is to hear and obey God's Word (Luke 6:46-48). When things are shaking, it's easy to forget what God told you in your quiet time or the word He gave you a week ago. Remind yourself of His love for you, or a promise He has spoken over your life.
2. The main characteristic of a disciple of Jesus is how we "see" things. We walk by faith, not by sight. Faith is the anticipation of seeing God do mighty things, even beyond what is happening in the natural world. Ask Jesus to increase your faith and to give you eyes to see what He is doing in your life, family, church, workplace, neighborhood and world.
3. Personalize and pray Psalms 46 and 91. Remind yourself of your unshakable God, and be renewed in awe and reverent worship of our Rock and Fortress.
4. During this time of social distancing and widespread fear, make intentional time for daily, focused prayer. Intercede for your community, for the afflicted and for the vulnerable. May we root into a "storm-proof" life as we continue to experience God's unshakable kingdom.
