Pastor's Pen

Psalm 24:1 states that everything that exists belongs to God. That means every financial decision we make has spiritual ramifications.

Stewardship is something many churches are afraid to talk about. It is not politically correct. Stewardship is far more than being generous with God's money. It's living debt free, having enough to help get your kids to a meaningful life and being ready for retirement. God's plan for all your resources will help you sleep better and have something left over at the end of the month.

If we fail to talk about it, we ignore 1600 pages of scripture that talk about money and your relationship to things. Of the 38 parables, Jesus told 24 that have to do with your money and possessions.

On May 5 at 12:30pm I will teach a class about how to gain control of your finances. I will give you some tools to help plan ahead and build a margin in your finances. We will serve lunch right after the 11am service and will provide baby sitting if needed. If you are interested, sign up in the lobby.

PASTORAL SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

Jason Robinson,
Pastoral Search
Committee Chairman

Greetings from the Pastoral Search Committee,

You may be wondering, “What are they up to?”

Well, over the last couple of weeks, we have been feeding the various documents and data collected (those items have been mentioned in previous Communiqués) to the MA’s and they have been using them to assemble an “Employment Packet” ...a fantastic job at that! Even though it is still being fine-tuned, it will be discussed at the Spring Congregational Meeting.

A request has been made to Regional Minister Chris Gorman to review any resumes has for Pastors he feels would be a good fit for CCBC. As of this writing, we have received one resume to review.

We are also in the process of developing the different elements of the interview process. For example, we are putting together a list of potential interview questions for the phone and formal interviews.

Please continue to pray with us as we move forward in this process.

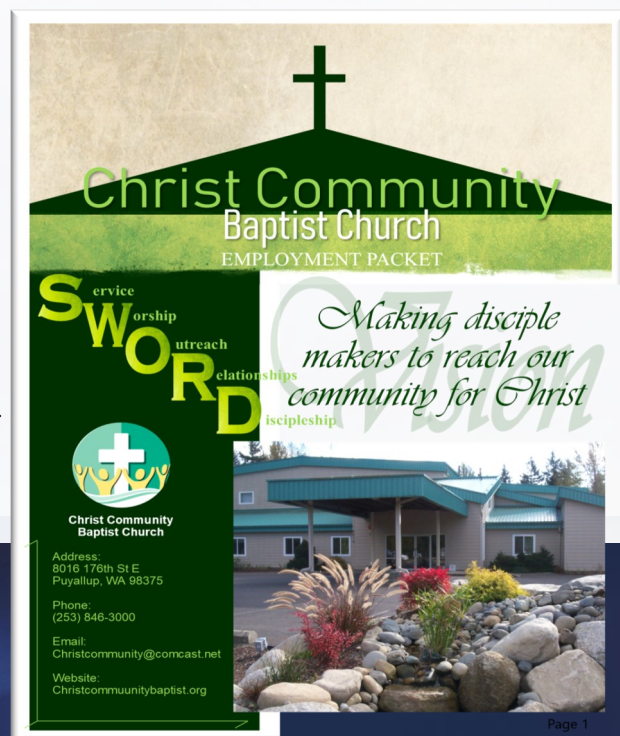

If you have any questions, please let me know.

In His Service,

Jason Robinson

Pastoral Search Committee Chairman

Come see excerpts from the “Employment Packet” at the Congregational Meeting
tonight April 28 @ 6:00pm

GOOD $ENSE

transformational stewardship for today's church

HOPE • GRACE • FREEDOM • JOY

Good $ense Money Management Seminar

Money is a powerful thing. If we fail to control it, it will make many key life decisions for us—where we live, what jobs we take, who our friends are, and more. We want you to gain the skills to really master your money so you can experience a freedom in Christ you may have never known before.

- ▶ Learn how to move from debt to financial freedom
- ▶ Learn how your money views and habits correlate with your relationship with God
- ▶ Learn how your culture influences your financial behavior— sometimes contrary to your values and your goals
- ▶ Learn about budgets, finances & your relationship to money
- ▶ Learn how to control your finances with new tools and skills

Ultimately, we hope you will leave this seminar with a deep sense of confidence—with God’s help—that you really can do it! We want you to leave with a budget in your hand, the knowledge in your head to implement it, and the desire and motivation in your heart to follow through.
