Pastor's Pen

Pastor Phil Yntema

What makes a church grow? Looking around, it appears that growing churches are doing one or both of two things.

For one, churches can hire a young flashy pastor and have a ministry program that "knocks your socks off." Now don't get me wrong; there is nothing wrong with that, but it will only draw a crowd, not build a church.

The other way is by word of mouth. When people meet our people and are so impressed that they ask, "How can I find what you have?"

Each church is like a book with each chapter being written by each of us.

"You are writing a gospel, a chapter a day.

By deeds that you do, by words that you say.

Men read what you write,

Whether faithless or true.

Say, what is the gospel according to you?"

~John R. Rice

Chuck Swindoll says it well, "Our model must accompany our message." A life lived like Jesus is far better than a "Jesus Saves" flag over your house, or tracts dropped from a blimp. There is nothing wrong with a great pastor or a glitzy program, but churches are built by people who resemble Jesus.

PASTORAC SEARCH IP DATE

Jason Robinson,
Pastoral Search
Committee Chairman

Hello Church Family,

As we enjoy the springtime sprouts and blossoms approaching the end of May, your Pastoral Search Committee (PSC) continues to progress through the pastoral search process. Their steadfast efforts have been paying off.

The "Employment Packet" (draft version was shown at the Spring Congregational Meeting) has reached the point of completion and the CCBC Lead Pastor position has "officially" been opened. You can access the Lead Pastor job information on the CCBC website under the tab of "Lead Pastor Search Documents" We have also been working on the initial phone interview questions.

Regional Ministers Chris Gorman (NW Region) and Rick Weber (Northern California Association) have been sent electronic and hard copies of the Employment Packet. A copy of the job description has also been sent to the following sites:

North American Baptist
Sioux Falls Seminary
Taylor Seminary in Edmonton

The PSC will review resumes as they come in and then we will set up the phone interviews. We have not yet established the length of time the job posting will remain open. Will you please continue to pray with us as we labor through this search?

Blessings, Jason Robinson
