"Christ is Risen"

On Sunday, April 1 we will gather for a very important celebration: Easter. For us Christians, Easter is more than baskets and bunnies; Easter is the great proclamation that Christ is Risen! Easter lies at the foundation of our Christian beliefs and I like to think of Easter as the New Year's Day of the soul. Easter is significant for us for many reasons, a few of which are:

1. Easter reminds us that death does not have the final word in our lives. Ever since sin entered the world through Adam and Eve in Genesis 2, the consequences for sin were death. The Garden of Eden was supposed to be a place of abundant life and joy, but the effect of sin changed that reality. Throughout the Old Testament, the penalty for sin was remediated through sacrifice and good words. However, our efforts always fell short and never quite measured up. God provided a different way, a better way, through Jesus. By the cross, God gave the once and for all sacrifice through Jesus Christ to overcome the powers of sin, and subsequently, the consequences of death. Jesus' resurrection opens the way for us to experience and enjoy eternal life-- a life not only here on earth, but also one eternally with God in heaven.

2. Easter assures us with the living present of God. One of the great promises throughout the Bible is God's assurance that he will not leave or forsake us. No matter how desperate life becomes or how good things get, God is always there to walk with us. This promise is not realized any more significantly than on Easter when Jesus came forth from the tomb and made his presence known to his followers. Over a period of 40 days Jesus appeared to his followers assuring them of his presence and promises. We are blessed by this same promise 2,000 years later of a God who walks with us on the mountain tops and in the valleys.

3. Easter reminds us that we are people of hope. The headlines in the newspapers and on the news can cause us to lose hope. We live in a world of accidents, addictions, shootings, tragedies, and pain. We know of people who are dying of cancer, those who are in the midst of relational problems, and others who face unexplainable things that cause us to question of faith and doubt God. Yet, as we gather as people of faith, we realize that in the end victory is imminent. The Apostle Paul, who experienced more than his share of pain, discouragements, and setbacks, writes of this good hope in 2 Corinthians 15:57, "Thanks be to God that we have victory through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

I look forward to Easter and being with you to celebrate this Good News. God is good and his steadfast love endures forever and to all generations. Let us come together this coming Sunday and celebrate the victory, hope, and promise of God's blessings. Easter worship services offered at 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM. A breakfast will be served in our fellowship hall from 9:15-10:00 AM and an Easter egg hunt for the kids will begin at 9:30 AM. Join us as we celebrate our Risen Savior!

In Christ,
Pastor Dave

FOOD BANK SUNDAY

Our church was one of the first churches in Billings to designate a monthly Food Bank Sunday. We invite you to bring some non-perishable food items with you on the first Sunday of each month as we help local people in need. Our next Food Bank Sunday will be held on Sunday, April 1. Thanks to all who brought food last month!

Session Notes: The session met on March 13. Since Janet Brown was not able to attend the February meeting, she was ordained by Pastor Dave and welcomed to her first session meeting.

Pastor Dave, Carla Bracken, and Chris Eriksen reported on the Presbytery meeting which they had attended at St. Andrew Presbyterian Church in Billings on March 2-3.

Pastor Dave was given permission to baptize Tate Jones, the infant son of Travis and Michelle Jones, on Sunday, March 28 during worship. Tate is grandson of Bart and Lynn Erickson and the great grandson of Jim and Biff Hogue. It was also voted to allow Pastor Dave to perform the wedding of Phil Tanis and Whitney Cummins on Saturday, June 9 at Chico Hot Springs.

The session scheduled their annual retreat at the church on Saturday, March 24.

First things first! A huge thank you to Barb and Ken Eichenberger for preparing, cutting, cooking, etc, the corned beef and cabbage for our St. Patrick's Day celebration on March 18. Their culinary skills are not only used on Sunday mornings and the block party; Barb and Ken often serve the youth on Wednesday evenings. Barb is very active in PW and Ken, as chair of the Mission Committee, is in charge of one of the most active committees in our church. We appreciate all you do Ken and Barb. Thank you for your many contributions to our church and community.
