Holy God, we confess that when we are left to our own ways we can easily stray from your path. It is easy for us to lose our spiritual focus and become discouraged in our faith. In all seasons of our lives, whether in times of joy or sorrow, help us to have a steady faith. Help us to see your faithful presence that is there to guide and lead us every step of the way. We pray these things through the redeeming grace that is ever present in Jesus Christ our Lord.
