What is a Silent Prayer Retreat?

It is a time away from the normal distractions of life and allows you time to refocus your life, your mind, and your heart on Jesus Christ.

Are We Really Silent?

Yes. Once silence begins on Friday night, ladies do not talk to each other until silence is broken on Sunday. This year's theme is "Joy." We are coming together to bask in the presence of our Lord, to listen quietly to Him, and to sense His presence and love for us. During our time at the retreat, we will meet together for several short sessions which will include helpful

At the Retreat You Will...

- Spend quality time with God
- Be challenged by thought-provoking sessions and assignments
- Enjoy the beautiful surroundings of St. Norbert's gardens and grounds

Rooms

Each lady has her own dorm-style room: bed, desk and chair, sink, and mirror. Bed linens and towels are also provided.

Meals

You have the option of bringing your own meals or of dining in the Abbey dining room. Due to limited refrigerator space, if you choose to bring your own meals, we do ask that you bring a small cooler in which to
