

The John A. Reed, Jr. Spirit of the Community Award Call for Nominations

The “John A. Reed, Jr. Spirit of the Community Award,” was created in as a way to recognize citizens who have gone above the call of duty by volunteering their time and resources for the betterment of the community. Previous award recipients include: Federal District Court Judge Vicki Miles-LaGrange, former State Representative Kevin Cox, former State Senators Judy Eason McIntyre, Angela Monson, E. Melvin Porter, the late Clara Luper, and the late Dr. Ernest L. Holloway.

Fairview Missionary Baptist Church, through its Black History Ministry, is accepting nominations for recipients of the award. Nominees should be dedicated servants of the community with a proven track record of continued service through community activism, education, political activities, professional service, or religious service.

Nominations will be accepted beginning January 8, 2017 and ending on February 7, 2017. Late nominations will not be accepted. Members of the community are encouraged to submit nominations. The nomination form and additional materials must be submitted as one packet. A complete packet will include the following:
