32nd Annual Prayer Bowl

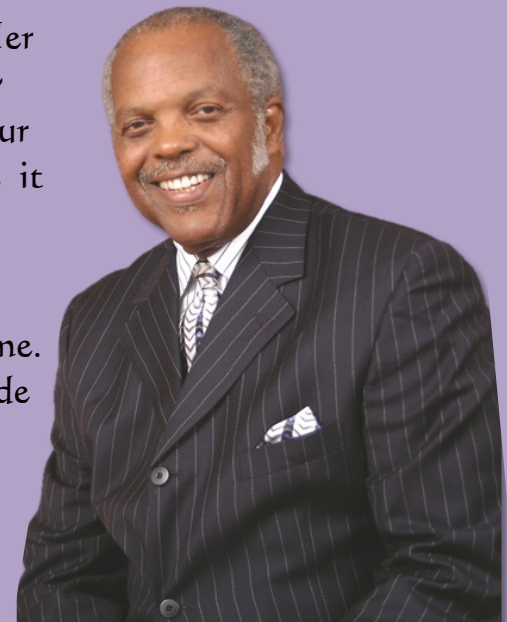

Pastor's 50th Anniversary Celebration

I greet the Fairview Family today that has consumed my care and concern for fifty years. I have shared in one place fifty years with some lovely people. Yes, many have gone, but there is still a remnant from yesterday.

First lady, Patricia Fisher Reed, joins me today in saluting you. Her courage, patience, poise and support for fifty years as my mate, my lover, my companion, friend, and often my advisor, the mother of our children and in many ways, my cheerleader as preacher and pastor, it will never be forgotten nor taken for granted.

It has been a joyful journey, an interesting journey, a journey of challenges and some achievements. This is the year of jubilee for me. Thanksgiving buckles over in my heart for many reasons. Gratitude grips me today when I think of then and now. Much water has saturated the earth and many experiences have come my way, but through it all, I have learned to depend on the Lord. My faith is

DO YOU HAVE A PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST?

If you believe in your heart that Jesus Is Lord, the Christ, the Savior, the Son of the Living God, and you are willing to turn from sin to God, then receive Jesus Christ now by faith and pray this prayer:

Lord Jesus I am a sinner.
Forgive me of all my sins, come into my heart and save me.
I do now confess you as my risen Lord.
Thank you Lord Jesus for saving me. AMEN

From the Editor's Pen —

Greetings to you from the staff of The Fairviewan! It is our prayer that as you entered the year 2013, you embraced it, expecting and open to receive all of the blessings that God has in store for you!

This year is a year of great excitement for the newsletter staff. We are celebrating our 20th year of continuous publication. For the past 19 years we have, month after month, shared with our faithful readers. Whether you have witnessed with us for the entire 19 years or if you are a new reader, we hope the Ministry has been a blessing to you.

As we begin our 20th year, we have instituted some changes to our publication. Foremost, we have gone from a monthly issue to a quarterly issue. Therefore, you will only receive the full issue four times per year—January, April, July, and October. We are putting processes in place that we hope will enhance our line of communication with you rather than diminish it. We will inform you of these as they become available. You will also notice various changes in the format of the issue.

If you have access to the internet, we encourage you to earmark our website, www.fairviewokc.com, and check it regularly. This will be one method we use to promote the church's ministry and make other pertinent announcements. Make us your homepage! We expect to, within the next two months, provide you the opportunity to subscribe to an e-newsletter so that you will automatically receive news and updates. The quarterly issue of The Fairviewan will continue to be posted to the church website.

If you would like to submit information for print, you may do so by emailing communication@fairviewokc.com or by submitting a hard copy. Let us hear from you! The deadline is the first Sunday of the month preceding the month of issue.

We appreciate your loyalty. Look for us again in April 2013!

still strong and my hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness.

It has been an honor for me to have served in this place all these years, to have seen so many born and now grown and married and parents. It has been a path for me to have stood by so many sick beds and have stood by open graves from time to time and stated "ashes to ashes and dust to dust." I thank God for the power of recall that causes me to visit the past with excitement and gratitude. The burden of the past is demanding and hopefully the future will be friendly.

Now Fairview, after all of these years, my plea is pray for me that I may finish my course with joy. I know the longest end of my pilgrimage is behind me. I've tried to be a quality pastor. I've served to please nobody. I tried to be a trusted friend and an excellent proclaimer of the Word.

Pray for me as I journey into the sunset years of this ministry. Pray for me that I keep preaching and serving until my day is done. I'm looking forward to something because I have already worked for it. I'm looking for a "Well done, my good and faithful servant!"

I say today, on this thirteenth day of January 2013, grace unto you all the saints in Fairview Missionary Baptist Church.

Love and peace be unto you from your Pastor!

50 Years of Faithful Service and Stewardship in the Pastoral Ministry

SUNDAY, JANUARY 13, 2013, DENOTES THE OFFICIAL BEGINNING OF THE 50TH PASTORAL ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION FOR FAIRVIEW PASTOR JOHN A. REED, JR. and his family. The Church Family will recognize Dr. Reed's first Sunday as Pastor during morning worship.

Rev. Reed, along with his wife Patricia, was presented to the Fairview Baptist Church Family 50 years ago on January 13, 1963 by the late Pastor S. S. Fairly. Dr. Fairly had selected Rev. Reed to serve as his assistant. The young Reed continued to serve in the pastoral role at the church, faithfully supporting and later caring for Dr. Fairly until his death in 1975; after which the church installed him as Pastor, where he has remained as a caring shepherd for 50 years.

To mark the 50-year anniversary of his arrival at Fairview, Dr. Reed will be preaching a celebratory sermon. The message will be based on the Anniversary Theme, "50 Years of Service and Stewardship in the Pastoral Ministry," I Corinthians 4:1-2. Pastor Reed announced that he preached the first Sunday morning that he arrived at Fairview so he felt it fitting that he preach himself on the 50th anniversary of his arrival.

The Black History & Social Action Ministries planned a special program for the 10:00 a.m.

PRAYER BOWL

In 2013, the Church Theme is The Disciplines of Discipleship. There are many disciplines that we as disciples (learners, followers, imitators) should practice regularly.

2013 began with the discipline of PRAYER. Since everything happens after Prayer, the Fairview family kicked off the new year with the following:

- Prayer Bowl on New Year's Eve,
- Prayer Seminar on Saturday, January 5, and the
- Super Prayer Meeting on Wednesday, January 9.

See detailed articles on each of these events in this Newsletter.

The Prayer Ministry of Fairview is made up of 12 Prayer Groups.

Each Fairview member was asked to sign up with one of these 12 groups. The Ministry will then have the ability to mobilize the entire church family for corporate prayer throughout the year as needed.

HAVE YOU FOUND YOUR PRAYER GROUP ???

New Year's Eve PRAYER BOWL

What a time! What a Time! What a Time! I make reference to the Annual Prayer Bowl which was held on its traditional date of New Year's Eve.

Let me say that I was blessed once more to have been able to attend and was in attendance from the Opening Prayer given by yours truly to the Benediction which was given at roughly 12:30 AM on New Years Day morning.

Let's cut to the chase and just say that the entire evening was AWESOME. From all the heaven sent messages given by the six visiting Pastors and the heavenly music given by all the musical aggregations from their churches who accompanied them, The Lord was in his Holy Temple that evening. The earth just had to be silent, as praised him.

Occupying his traditional position and opening the proceedings was Kelly Booker, the proud Pastor of the Union Baptist church. Pastor Booker took his message from the text of Luke 24:13-17, 25-31. The message was titled, What's Your Communication?

Rev. Lee Cooper moved into the second spot at 7 PM and preached a powerful message on, Can You See It?, using Luke 17:11-19 as the text. Rev. Cooper pastors the Prospect Baptist Church, and is a long time participant in this annual event.

A new comer moved into the spot that Pastor Cooper had occupied for many years and that new comer anchored the first half of the event for the evening. I absolutely love Pastor Michael McDaniel, not only for his powerful preaching, but for the technique he uses in getting his messages across. Shall we say "SHORT AND SWEET", which suits me. Rev McDaniel is the proud Pastor of the Northeast Missionary Baptist Church. His message was entitled, God's Maneuvers, and the source of that message was Exodus 1:8-12.

Initiating the second half of the program for the evening was the Inimitable, Indomitable, Much Loved, and Highly Respected Rev. Dr. Major Lewis Jemison, Pastor of the St. John Missionary Baptist Church. Pastor Jemison was in top form as he spoke on, Going The Distance, excerpting his message from Philippians 3:12-14. Pastor Jemison is a Powerful Pro-claimer of God's word and that was evident during his homily.

The Church was not new in the fifth hour, but the Messenger was. Rev. Ray Douglas, Pastor of the Greater Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church, made Pastor Reed a PROUD PAPA, as he delivered a powerful message on, A Survivors Story, using Psalms 34:1-4 as his source. Pastor Douglas took up where the late A. Glen Woodberry left off and did not miss a beat. Pastor Douglas was in top form and he had the house on fire.

Last but not least, another Son of Fairview and Son in the Ministry of Pastor Reed, anchored the second half of the program. From the Bethel Baptist Church, Rev. Teron Gaddis took us on higher as he lifted the roof with a powerful and scintillating message just to say, Lord Thank You. The message was lifted out of Luke 17:11-19, and it was appropriate, for as midnight struck hailing the onset of a new year, Pastor Gaddis was praising God for allowing all of us assembled to be able to see the new year. It was his Grace and his Mercy that brought us safely through the outgoing year, and Rev. Gaddis reminded each of us of the same.

I have given you the message titles, and the source of each message. If you hunger for more, contact the Fairview Media Ministry and you can get the complete thrust and gist of each powerful message that was given, plus enjoy some very powerful music rendered by each of the musical groups.

Assistant Pastor Derrick Walter Sr., Ministerial Assistants Arthur Crawford, and Cleo J. McGlory, kept the proceedings moving along in an expeditious manner throughout the long evening. Food was provided to all who attended by Sister Willa Nero and her staff of able assistants.

The crowds were large and enthusiastic throughout the entire evening and those in attendance were indeed blessed by what their ears heard and what their eyes saw.

This Prayer Bowl was so uplifting and inspiring that I can still hear the messages ringing in my psyche. Now we await the 2013 Prayer Bowl and our prayer is that God will allow us to be among the living when that time comes.

C. Meldon Hardrick, Staff Reporter

On January 9, 2013, at the SUPER PRAYER MEETING, there was a unity of churches and a blessing for all who attended.

Fairview Baptist Church and Greater New Zion Baptist Church choirs sang selections that put praises on your tongue and prepared each heart and mind for worship. Dr. James Tucker brought the message from Mark 15:32-33 entitled "The Temptation of Coming Down."

No matter your age, gender, or position in life this message had something that resonated with each person in attendance. He spoke of the mind set of Jesus on the cross and how that translates to any person trying to do better, be committed to Christ, and leaders of the gospel that are often persuaded to leave the pulpit for an easier path in life. He took a journey from the cross to salvation and explained how important it is to stay the course. History was dependent on Jesus staying on the cross and someone's life could be dependent on your course through life and praying through it.

This message inspired everyone who heard it to define their personal cross in their own lives and to take it to Jesus to overcome their burdens. It was a true blessed event.

PRAYER Seminar

Rev. Tony Rhone, Galilee Baptist Church—Shawnee, OK, was the keynote speaker for the 2013 Prayer Seminar at Fairview on Saturday, January 5. His message was THE DISCIPLINE OF PRAYER IN DISCIPLESHIP, Matthew 16: 24—27.

A disciple is a messenger, follower, learner of the Lord Jesus Christ, putting into practice those things we have been taught by Jesus. (Luke 11: 1-13).

Rev. Tony is a great teacher and he taught us much about the value of prayer for our spiritual growth. We MUST be disciplined in prayer in order to grow. He instructed us to make a commitment to prayer for 2013 by praying more, and not under our own strength, but with God’s help. In light of the time of year, many across the nation create a litany of resolutions. It is easy to take on too much and to work out of sheer determination, but Rev. Tony cautioned us to avoid the trap of depending on our strength and not to sabotage our efforts by overloading our plates.

The disciples witnessed Jesus’ practice of praying. He is our Supreme example and if He practiced praying, it goes without saying that we should do the same. There will be good results. The three major points Rev. Rhone emphasized regarding prayer are:

- We will grow when prayer is practiced,
- Pray with the right perspective,
- Pray with persistence.

Rev Tony asked the question, “If someone heard you pray, would that be able to tell that you are a follower of Jesus?” He suggests that as we grow our prayers should not be so much about us, here and now and worldly things. Our prayers should be more about putting ourselves in a position for God to get HIS WILL. Our perspective should be based on what God wants for us, growing in allegiance and dependence on Him.

When life deals a low blow and you’re in a valley, don’t give up and forsake prayer. When you’re on top of the world an nothing could be better, don’t give up and forsake prayer. Life may change, but the same God is there throughout eternity. Trust that God will provide for you what is best for YOU. God has given us promises, so trust that He will meet our needs (John 15:7).

At the conclusion of the Seminar, Sis Shree Walter read the poem to the right on this page while those in the seminar wrote down their prayer requests to hang of the Cross. Prayer warriors designated for the Seasons of Prayer for this service came forward to close out the seminar in prayer for Ministries, Church staff/Pastor/Wife, Youth, the Lost, Families, Unity and Finances.

HANG IT ON THE CROSS

If you have a secret sorrow, A burden or a loss, An aching need for healing..

HANG IT ON THE CROSS

If worry steals your sleep And makes you toss and turn, If your heart is feeling heavy

HANG IT ON THE CROSS

Every obstacle to faith, Or doubt you come across, Every prayer unanswered

HANG IT ON THE CROSS

For Christ has born our brokenness And dearly paid the cost To turn our trials to triumphs

HANG IT ON THE CROSS

Worship Period that features those individuals who attended Fairview in 1963. In addition to recognizing the individuals from 1963, special tributes will be offered by two members who were active at Fairview when Dr. Reed arrived.

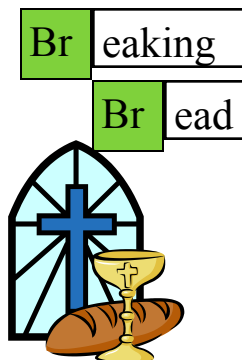

A month-long 50th Anniversary Celebration will be held in March of this year. The events will include worship services with guest preachers, Anniversary Musicals, A Golden Anniversary Banquet on March 15 and a 50th Anniversary Souvenir Journal. A tentative schedule of events is included in this publication. Additional and updated details on the Anniversary activities will be made available on the church website at www.fairviewokc.com or by calling the church at 405-232-1621.

Banquet tickets are available and will be released on a first-come, first-served basis. Individual tickets can be obtained at a donation of $50 each for regular seating or $100 for priority seating by calling the church or by emailing fairviewokc@aol.com. Reserved tables seat 10.

Deadline for inclusion in the Souvenir Journal is February 1. A form for space reservation is included in the publication. Forms and information are also available from the committee in the church vestibule, on the church website or by emailing communication@fairviewokc.com. Costs range from $20 to $500 for specialty placement.

The Fairview Family encourage all who have been touched by the ministry of this spiritual leader to plan to share with him by attending the scheduled worship experiences, attend the Banquet and be a part of the historical Souvenir Journal.

On today's menu we are serving up bacon, sausage, scrambled eggs, white rice with brown gravy with a nice hot church-made biscuit, your choice of fresh brewed coffee, grape juice and apple juice. Doesn't that sound good right about now? Well last Sunday, January 6, The First Family served the church that menu and boy was it good!

Not only was the food good, but the fellowship was wonderful! I had a wonderful time being able to fellowship with my fellow church members. Not only that, but what a great way to begin the new year, in the presence of the Lord while sharing food, fun and fellowship one to another.

Thank you First Family!

Kimberly Thompson, guest writer

103rd Homecoming

Sunday, December 2, we celebrated our 103rd Church Anniversary and Homecoming. Pastor Jeff Mitchell and the Tabitha Church Family shared with us in this grand celebration.

The Tabitha Music Ministry blessed us with songs. Rev. Mitchell preached about, "The True Church." The scripture came from Matthew 16: 16-18.

Rev. Mitchell said, "The Church is the called-out ones. Many Christians want to be a part of the assembly, but not a part of the called-out ones." Rev. Mitchell also reminded us that the Church is here to stay. His 3 points were:

- The Church is indestructible.
- The Church is intolerable.
- The Church is invincible.

Immediately following worship service all our guests were invited to our Fellowship Dinner. We truly thank God for another year as we strive to "Be the Church Today."

EVANGELISM EXPLOSION

Our 2012 Evangelism Explosion was held from November 28-30 Nov night-ly with Dr. Clarence Morton delivering the Word of God. On the first night, Dr. Morton's message came from Acts 1:1-8 with the main focus on verse 8. Here, he shows us that once we know for ourselves that Jesus died for us so that we may live, we have to be "all in" and "sold out for the cause" in order to be true witnesses of Him. Once we have the desire to hear the Word of God and repent of our sins, we shall receive the power of the Holy Spirit as it comes over us. And with this power, Dr. Morton tells us that we are to begin witnessing in Jerusalem, which is home with family and friends, then to Judea and Samaria.

The next night, Dr. Morton spoke from the Old Testament in Isaiah 43:8-11. As Christians, Dr. Morton informs us that our purpose is to evangelize to all unsaved. "It does not matter what lifestyle they live or what sin they've done or where they've been. We want them to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ so they shall be saved." Because there are so many other religions out there, we must study the Word of God so that we can defend the Word of God when we evangelize. We should not be afraid of them. We must be equipped with the Holy Spirit and knowledge of the Word of God so that we are ready to answer. "You have to know what you believe and be rooted in the Word of God" so that we can defend our faith.

Dr. Morton's message on the last night came from Luke 18:9-11. This scripture deals with the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector. The Pharisee prayed thanking God that he was not like other men, whereas the tax collector prayed asking God for mercy for being a sinner. When we take pride in our righteousness, often times we tend to sneer our noses at those whom we believe are beneath us. But the Bible says in James 4:6, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted" (v. 14). In the end, we are all saved by God's grace and mercy and our faith in Him, not by our deeds.

FAIRVIEW BAPTIST CHURCH DRAMA MINISTRY
PRESENTS

WHY DO WE CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS?

On December 23, 2012 the Drama Ministry presented a production on why we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

The congregation began by singing, “The First Noel”. Then the scripture Matthew 2:11 was read by Patti Brown, describing the birth of Jesus to Mary and Joseph.

The Preschoolers, (Sis. LaRhesa Marsh, Group Leader) preceded to come out ringing bells. Each child recited an announcement that Jesus Christ is born. Then they all said in unison, Jesus is the reason for the season”.

Primary Groups 1 and 2, (Vee Randolph and Doris Simmons) came out holding signs spelling, “Jesus is the Light” and began to speak about how Jesus is a precious gift and that all things come from Him.

Primary Group 3 and Junior Group 4, (Hattie Marsh and Paula McGlory, Group Leaders) did short poems on What Christmas is all about, Jesus. Students recited scriptures from Isaiah 9:6 and Galatians 5:22-24 (The Fruit of the Spirit).

Junior Groups 5 and 6, (Patti Brown Jean Fisher, and Phyllis Reece) did a dialogue proclaiming why Jesus is the promised Messiah LIFT (co-directed by Jo Reed and Gail Ellison), danced with grace to the musical arrangement of, “O Holy Night”.

Intermediate Group, (Sis. Jo Reed, Group Leader) recounted to us through short speeches, “What does Christmas mean to me”.

Seniors, (Sis. Evalia Darling, Group Leader). Sis. Evalia came out as an Angel. Then she and 2 other members of the Darling family narrated the birth of Jesus from Luke 2:7-16. The Seniors then expressed to us that Jesus is, “Love, Peace, and Joy”.

The program was closed out with a powerful rendition from Sis. Debra Davis of Glory, Glory, Glory, to the new Born Child!

Closing remarks and benediction were made by Hattie Marsh, Drama Ministry Director. Additional remarks were given by Vee Randolph and Sunday School Director Bro. Ron Coffey. Asst. Pastor Derrick Walker, Sr. made the final remarks.

Thanks to Sis. Nella Coffey and the festive music she played throughout the program.

Thanks to all who participated and made this production possible!

LIFT

Ladies in Fellowship Together

On Sunday, December 9, 2012, LIFT presented five of Fairview's own women from the Hillside Facility with Christmas Bags (Paula Moore, Brenda Davis, Amanda Warren, Sharanda Taylor and Dorthy Thomas). The ladies were very appreciative. LIFT also assisted with a very lavish and decorative holiday lunch.

Scripture was read—Isaiah 9: 6. Prayer for the soul and food, "let's eat." Everyone was full and laid back and very thankful.

A very special Thank You to all the extra volunteers who helped with food and time. LIFT is calling all former and soliciting new members. Wishing everyone a very blessed New Year! All praises to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! Mary's Baby, The Mighty God! Titus 2: 11 -14

Prayer Ministry

Our theme for the year is SEEK GOD. Scripture text: Psalms 70:4 Jeremiah 29:7

Our Prayer Emphasis for the month of January is: Seeking God on behalf of Pastors. Scripture text: I Peter 5:2,7. The New Living Translation reads thusly. Care for the flock of God entrusted to you. Watch over it willingly, not grudgingly-not for what you will get out of it, but because you are eager to serve God. Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about what happens to you

Three things must be answered here; What is a Pastor, Who calls him and How should the pastor perform the duties of being responsible for the souls of the flock?

Simply put, a Pastor is a Minister who cares for a flock forming God's Church. What Sets a Pastor apart from a regular Minister is that the Pastor is responsible for the well being of the souls of the flock that he is set over. It goes without saying, that all Pastors are Ministers, but not all Ministers are Pastors.

Who calls the Pastor? We look at the scripture text and the answer is clear. GOD CALLS THE PASTOR and entrusts the well being of the flock to the Pastor and the Pastor alone. Not the Assistant to the Pastor, not the Minister of Evangelism, not the Youth Minister, and not to any other minister other than the one he has called to serve as PASTOR.

How should the Pastor perform the duties of caring for the flock? Again the answer is provided in the text. The Pastor is to care for and watch over the flock willingly. Not grudgingly-not for what the Pastor will get out of it, but because he (the Pastor) is eager to serve and be obedient to God's command. The Pastor should not assume a holier than thou attitude toward the flock, but he should lead them through good examples of service as Jesus led the Apostles. The Pastor should give all of his worries and cares to God, for God cares about what happens to the Pastor.

Before closing, let me inform you of our duties as members of the flock when the Pastor/Shepherd falls. And he will fall, for Psalms 37:24 says, Though he fall (the Shepherd) he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand. I Chronicles 16:22 says, (New Living Translation) Do not touch these people (My Anointed), I have chosen and do not hurt my prophets.

The bible tells us to pray for our Pastors daily, that they will know the will of God for them.

The Apostle Paul reminds us in Ephesians 6:18-19 (New Living Translation), Pray at all times and on every occasion in the power of the Holy Spirit. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers, for all Christians everywhere. And pray for me too. Ask God to give me the right words as I boldly explain God's secret plan that the Good News is for all who desire to be the beneficiary of his holy word.

Let us pray. Our Father in Heaven, Hallowed would be thy holy and righteous name. I pray in the name of Jesus that you would forever bless the one that you have anointed and set over us as the Shepherd of the flock who is responsible for the well being of our souls. Bless Pastor John A. Reed Jr., from the crown of his head to the souls of his feet. And Lord when he falls, help me to pray that you will lift him and upholdeth him with your hand. In the blessed name of Jesus, we do pray and ask it all. AMEN

JOY TO THE WORLD

The Annual Angel Tree Christmas Party was held in the fellowship hall at Fairview on December 15. The room was filled with tons of gifts, plenty of smiles and anxious little gift-opening-fingers to go around. The Fairview Family was on hand to extend their well wishes to the families.

MEN'S MINISTRY CORNER

We greet you once more in the Eternal name of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. It's our prayer that each of you experienced a happy Holiday Season and now you are ready to march into the new year looking forward to what God has in store for you.

We would remind you to continue to pray for our brethren who are sick and afflicted. Please pray mightily for those that we know of and some we may not be aware of. We not only need to pray for those who are sick and afflicted, but pray also for those Brethren who have backslidden and fallen by the way side.

Let's pray for our beloved President. He needs our prayers for his physical protection, along with God's anointed blessings upon him, as he tries to lead the nation and do those things which are pleasing in the sight of God and mankind. Also remember to pray for our Pastor Beloved, Pastor Reed. We are so blessed to have him as our leader, and let's pray that God will strengthen him where he is weak, build him up where he is torn down, and prop him up on every leaning side. Ask God to bless him spiritually, physically, and financially.

Let's pray that God will allow us to serve more effectively in His kingdom during 2013 than we did in 2012.

Our meetings times are the 2nd

Wednesdays of each month at 6 PM. Please support us as we try to serve him and do those things that he commands us to do. We ask that you would please pray for our Executive Committee of Men as they try to mold the lives of the young men and allow them to become what the Lord would have them to become. They are doing yeoman work and can do even more with our prayerful support.

The Singing Churchmen continues to serve with gladness and sends an RSVP to any and all of you that can make a joyful noise unto the Lord, to join with us. We have a place for you. The rehearsal dates and times are the 1st and 3rd Mondays of each month at 7:30 PM. Bro. Ahmad Kennedy continues to provide committed and dedicated leadership to the best Men's Chorus this side of heaven as Pastor would say.

Let me declare once more what a privilege it is to serve as Director of the Men. I shall give my best and shall serve as long as Pastor would have me serve, and as long as God gives me the strength to do so. After all, God put me here to serve him as I make my Christian Journey.

Scripture for the month: Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. Isaiah 12:2

50th Pastoral Anniversary Celebration

Reverend John A. Reed, Jr., D.D., L.H.D., Senior Pastor

Greetings in the glorious name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

We are celebrating a historic event at Fairview, one that few churches have experienced. The second Sunday in January, 2013, marks the 50th year of Pastoral service of Reverend Dr. John A. Reed, Jr. to the Fairview Baptist Church. To show our appreciation to this God-man and his family, we have set aside the entire month of March to commemorate The 50th Pastoral Anniversary Celebration for Dr. J. A. Reed, Jr. and Family.

The theme selected is: “50 Years of Faithful Service and Stewardship in the Pastoral Ministry:” This, then, is how you ought to regard us: as servants of Christ and as those entrusted with the mysteries God has revealed. Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful. I Corinthians 4:1-2 [NIV]

Dr. Reed has rendered spiritual leadership, not only to Fairview, but to the community, city, state, and across the nation. He is known as a friend of preachers and a servant to all! His aim in life is to serve God and mankind. He gives tirelessly of himself, ministering to the needs of others—whether spiritual, physical, or social. Pastor Reed's song of life is "If I Can Help Somebody As I Pass Along, ...then my living shall not be in vain."

The month-long celebration will include a lineup of worship celebrations, including guest preachers, musical worship celebrations, a Golden Anniversary Banquet and a 50th Anniversary Souvenir Journal. Because of your relationship with Dr. Reed and Sister Reed, we want to give you an opportunity to join with us in celebrating this momentous occasion. We know that you will want to place an AD of Tribute in the 50th Anniversary Souvenir Journal. Furthermore, you will want to share in this auspicious occasion by attending a banquet to be held on March 15 at 7:00 p.m. at the Magnuson Hotel/Meridian Convention Center, 737 South Meridian Avenue in Oklahoma City.

You will be able to view updates on all celebratory events as they become available through visiting our website at www.fairviewokc.com. Two of the events, however, have set deadlines so it is important that you act now to guarantee space. We have included information on the Souvenir Journal and the Golden Anniversary Banquet with this mailing. Because of the multiplicity of persons that have been a part of Dr. Reed's ministry, we expect a record number of requests for inclusion in the Journal and for banquet tickets so we recommend that you reserve your space early! Forms and instructions for making your reservations are included. Questions regarding the souvenir journal should be directed to Maeleatha Patterson, Souvenir Book Committee Chairperson, at communication@fairviewokc.com. Banquet ticket questions should be directed to Johnneese Walter, Ticket Chairperson, 405-816-1952.

We are asking for your support. We appreciate your consideration and thank you for partnering with us.

Praising God for His Blessings,
